OWNERSHIP

PREDATORS HOLDINGS LLC

On December 7, 2007, Predators Holdings LLC purchased the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates the Sommet Center) and took over the day-to-day operation of the National Hockey League team and the Sommet Center.

Predators Holdings LLC includes local executives in finance, health care and private business. Members include: David Freeman, Herb Fritch, Christopher Cigarran, Thomas Cigarran, Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl, DeWitt Thompson V and John Thompson.

(listed alphabetically)

CHRISTOPHER C. CIGARRAN

Chris Cigarran is the senior vice president of human resources and organization development at Nashville's Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of comprehensive health and care support programs and services.

Prior to joining American Healthways, Cigarran spent several years as a consultant working with multiple organizations in the U.S. and Canada, including Patagonia, Citibank, Dofasco Steel and British Airways. In that role, Cigarran focused on teams in organizations, organizational culture, as well as organizational change and effectiveness.

Cigarran received his undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and his master's degree from Pepperdine University.

THOMAS G. CIGARRAN

Tom Cigarran is a co-founder, former CEO and current chairman of the Nashville-based Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of comprehensive health and care support programs and services. He also serves as chairman of AmSurg Corp., a single-specialty, practice-based ambulatory surgery center company.

Cigarran serves as chairman of the Alignment Nashville Operating Board, the Haiti Mission Education Committee and the advisory board of the Vanderbilt Owen School Healthcare MBA program. He also serves as a member of the boards of the Vanderbilt University Medical Center, the Nashville Alliance for Public Education, the Nashville Health Care Council and Harpeth Hall School.

Cigarran is a graduate of Villanova University with a Master's degree from the New York University Graduate School of Business.

JOEL AND HOLLY DOBBERPUHL

Joel Dobberpuhl is the CEO and portfolio manager of Jetstream Capital, a global hedge fund he founded in 2003. Prior to founding Jetstream Capital, Dobberpuhl was a senior portfolio manager for AIM investments.

Dobberpuhl received his degree from Southern Methodist University in 1988 alongside Holly (Stone) Dobberpuhl. Together, the Dobberpuhls are active in several charities based in the Nashville Area and have both served on the boards of Mercy Children's Clinic and Rocketown Ministries. Mrs. Dobberpuhl, a passionate Predators fan, also serves on the board of Saddle Up!, a therapeutic riding facility in Franklin, Tenn.

Joel, Holly, son Samuel and daughter Lily reside in Nashville.

OWNERSHIP

DAVID S. FREEMAN

David S. Freeman founded 36 Venture Capital and serves as the company's CEO.

He was the founder and CEO of Commodore Medical Sevices, which grew to be the second-largest company in the medical waste industry at the time of its sale in 2007. He also practiced mergers and acquisition law for more than 10 years in Dallas and Nashville.

Freeman serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of the United Way of Metropolitan Nashville.

Freeman received his undergraduate degree at the University of Tennessee and a Juris Doctor degree from the Vanderbilt University School of Law. Born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., the Freeman family resides in Nashville.

HERBERT A. FRITCH

Herbert A. Fritch has served as the chairman, president and chief executive officer of HealthSpring, Inc., and its predecessor, NewQuest, LLC, since it began operation in 2000. Beginning his career in 1973 as an actuary, Fritch has more than 30 years of experience in the managed healthcare business.

A graduate of Carleton College, Fritch and his wife Barbara reside in Nashville. They are members of United Way's Tocqueville Society and Barbara serves on the board of the Nashville Zoo.

DEWITT C. THOMPSON V

DeWitt (De) C. Thompson V currently serves as the president of Thompson Machinery, the Caterpillar dealer for Middle and West Tennessee, as well as North Mississippi.

Thompson founded PureWorks, Inc. in 1999 and continues to serve as the company's chairman of the board. He also serves as chairman of the Nashville City Paper.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson, his wife Jamee, son DeWitt VI and daughters Helen and Grace reside in Nashville.

JOHN P.G. THOMPSON

John P.G. Thompson has served as the marketing director of Thompson Machinery since January 2006. He also owns and manages Thompson Properties, LLC, a company that purchases, manages and sells single-family rental real estate property.

Prior to working for Thompson Machinery, he served as an asset manager for Covenant Capital Group, LLC.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson is active in the Nashville community. He serves as a volunteer for preschool children with special needs, is a fundraising founder for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and a member of the Young Alumni Board of Nashville's Montgomery Bell Academy.

ED LANG PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

The Nashville Predators introduced Ed Lang as the organization's President of Business Operations on December 11, 2007. Lang, who has been with the franchise since its inception, began as the organization's Vice President/CFO and was named Executive Vice President of Finance and Administration/CFO in 2005.

Lang oversees all aspects of the Predators operations outside of hockey, including Sommet Center operations. He is responsible for the franchise's business operations, which include ticket operations, sales, sponsorship sales, broadcasting, marketing, communications and development, administration and finances.

The Cincinnati native is an alternate governor for the club and is charged with overseeing the franchise's overall operation, including the development of long-term plans and goals. Lang was instrumental in assisting former owner Craig Leipold in securing the expansion franchise that became the Nashville Predators in 1997. As one of the club's first employees, Lang also played important roles in creating the organization's structure and establishing it business operations.

For 12 years prior to joining the Predators, Lang worked for S.C. Johnson and Son in Racine, Wis. He served in a variety of business and financial capacities, including venture manager for the office of the chairman, financial support manager, North America professional markets; and financial project manager, corporate financial analysis.

In March of 2006, Lang was elected to the board of directors for Johnson Outdoors, a leading global outdoor recreation company. The company designs, manufactures and markets a portfolio of winning, consumer-preferred brands across four categories: watercraft, marine electronics, diving and outdoor equipment.

Since moving to Nashville in 1997, Lang has been very active in the Middle Tennessee community. He was elected chairman of Nashville's Adventure Science Center in June 2008, and is a board member for the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau. He also serves as the vice president for the Nashville Predators Foundation and is an ex-office board member of the Nashville Downtown Partnership.

A 1985 Indiana University graduate with a B.S. in finance, Lang received his MBA from Marquette University in 1992. He resides in Brentwood, Tenn., with wife, Rita, and sons, Eddie and Andrew. Lang is an outdoor enthusiast and has competed in numerous triathlons, marathons and cycling events. He also enjoys skiing and mountain climbing.

MANAGEMENT

DAVID POILE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Nashville Predators General Manager David Poile has been a top voice in the National Hockey League for 27 years (15 with Washington, 12 with Nashville), second only in consecutive active seasons as a GM to the New York Rangers' Glen Sather (29 years). His overall tenure as a general manager ranks as the sixth longest in NHL history. In December 2007, he added President of Hockey Operations to his title for the first time in his career.

As the architect of a club built on speed and skill, Poile saw his aggressive team-building plan (implemented from the franchise's inception) continue to bear fruit in 2008-09 as four more Predator draftees made their NHL debuts (Patric Hornqvist, Cal O'Reilly, Mike Santorelli and Alexander Sulzer). In addition to the newcomers, eight other Poile draft picks (Martin Erat, Dan Hamhuis, Kevin Klein, David Legwand, Pekka Rinne, Ryan Suter, Jordin Tootoo and Shea Weber) made up Nashville's young, talented core. He has also brought in the veteran presence of Jason Arnott, J.P. Dumont and Steve Sullivan in recent seasons to create a balanced lineup.

Under Poile's direction, the Predators have have been one of the top teams in the NHL. Since the start of 2005-06, their 181 wins ranks sixth-best in the league, while 107 home victories puts them third behind only Detroit (112) and Calgary (108) in the category. Nashville has made the playoffs in four of the past five seasons, averaging more than 97 points per season during that span (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07, 91 in 2007-08 and 88 in 2008-09).

The club soared to its highest level yet in 2006-07, finishing the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) during the campaign, leading Poile to be recognized by The Sporting News as its Executive of the Year, an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84) and which is determined through a vote of his peers. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect.

The aggressive team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has transformed the organization into one of the NHL's most promising clubs. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including assistant general manager Paul Fenton, chief amateur scout Jeff Kealty, and the coaching staff, led by Barry Trotz.

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop promising young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup Championship in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the Calder Cup Finals in 2006. In 2008-09, the Admirals made their seventh consecutive playoff appearance and won their third division title in the past six seasons behind a team compiled largely by Predators prospects.

Always looking to the future, Poile and his scouting staff have made 11 selections in first four rounds of the Entry Draft over the past two seasons, making two first-round selections for the first time in club history in 2008 (forward Colin Wilson and goaltender Chet Pickard), and making six selections in the first 100 overall picks in 2009.

With the introduction of a new CBA in 2005, locking down talent long-term has become more crucial than ever before. Poile claimed Arnott off the open market with a five-year contract prior to the 2006-07 season, and has also negotiated long-term deals with Dumont (four years), Legwand (six years) and Erat (seven years) in the past two seasons. In the summer of 2008, he kept budding stars Suter (four years) and Weber (three years) in tow, and kept unrestricted free agents Sullivan and Joel Ward from moving on with a pair of two-year contracts in July 2009.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world. On June 6, 2008, USA Hockey named him the associate general manager for the U.S. team that will compete in the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver. He and the rest Team USA's brain trust held an Orientation Camp in August 2009, and will pick the Olympic squad in December 2009.

He was also selected as one of four NHL general managers to sit on the first NHL competition committee in 2005. The steering body formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors. In this role, he helped usher in the new era of NHL hockey – featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout and the elimination of the red line – while at the same time drawing upon the wealth of experience accumulated through his many years in the game.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of contributions to hockey in the United States. Poile has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). He began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982.

With Washington, Poile took the reins of a team that had never made the Stanley Cup playoffs. In his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the post-season 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 595-454-124 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the league's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue. Poile also served as general manager of the 1998 and 1999 U.S. National Team for the International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame.

Poile also serves as an alternate governor for the team and holds a seat within the franchise's Office of the President. He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian.

CHRIS PARKER EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND CHIEF SALES OFFICER

Chris Parker joined the Predators in March of 2008 as Senior Vice President of Corporate Development and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Sales and Chief Sales Officer on March 1, 2009. Prior to joining the Predators, he served as the Vice President of Business Development with Palace Sports & Entertainment in Detroit.

In his role with the Predators, Parker oversees all sale functions of the organization including ticket sales, corporate partnerships and premium seating. He also directs all aspects of the club's business and broadcast partnerships, including sales and service both locally and nationally.

While with Palace Sports and Entertainment, the ownership umbrella which includes the Pistons (NBA), the Shock (WNBA), the Palace at Auburn Hills and several concert venues, Parker managed parts of the corporate marketing department and all new business initiatives.

Prior to his time with Palace Sports, Parker spent nearly 10 years with Silicon Valley Sports & Entertainment (SVSE) the parent company of the San Jose Sharks, HP Pavilion Management and the SAP Open tennis tournament. Parker spent his last five years in San Jose as the Director, Corporate Partnerships where he oversaw all aspects of the organizations corporate sales and service initiatives. During his tenure with SVSE Parker was responsible for more than $100 million in gross sales, including the naming rights to HP Pavilion, the SAP Open (ATP) and the Comerica Bank Club.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, with a degree in sports management and communications, Parker began his sports career with the International Hockey League league office in suburban Detroit.

Parker resides in Nashville and serves on several philanthropic boards and committees including the Alumni Advisory Board of the Division of Kinesiology at the University of Michigan, as Vice Chairman of the Bernard P. "Pat" Maloy Endowed Scholarship at Michigan and the Board of Directors for Junior Achievement of Middle Tennessee.

DEREK PEREZ EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS/CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Derek Perez was named the Executive Vice President of Marketing and Communications and Chief Marketing Officer of the Nashville Predators in July of 2009.

Perez has more than 15 years of marketing experience. Prior to joining the Predators, he was with NVIDIA Corporation in Santa Clara, California for 11 years, where he was responsible for a number of marketing and communication departments and projects, including: public relations, social media, event management and more.

In his role with the Predators, Perez directs all aspects of the club's marketing and communications, including public relations, community relations, media relations, the team's web site, amateur hockey efforts, entertainment, marketing and advertising.

A native of California, Perez studied Public Relations and Business Marketing at San Jose State University. In addition, Perez also completed executive management courses at Stanford University.

PAUL FENTON ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Paul Fenton is now in his 12th season with the Predators and his fourth as assistant general manager. After serving as the director of player personnel for the Predators' first eight seasons, Fenton was promoted to assistant general manager on June 5, 2006.

Fenton oversees the Predators' amateur player development, manages the team's professional and amateur scouting staffs and advises General Manager David Poile on all player trades and signings. He has been in charge of all player acquisitions since joining the Predators, and managed the club's Entry Draft efforts from 2003-07. Fenton also serves as general manager of the Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Fenton joined the Predators after spending five seasons in the Anaheim Ducks' hockey operations department. He served as a scout during his first three seasons with the Ducks and as the chief professional scout the last two years. A number of players drafted during Fenton's run with the Ducks – such as Paul Kariya, Steve Rucchin, Ruslan Salei and Mike LeClerc – led Anaheim to the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals. The Springfield, Mass., native also helped facilitate one of the Anaheim franchise's largest trades, the February 1996 acquisition of Teemu Selanne.

Fenton played eight seasons in the NHL before joining the scouting ranks. He amassed 100 goals and 83 assists in 411 NHL contests while playing for seven different NHL teams, including San Jose during the Sharks' inaugural season (1991-92). In 1989-90, the former Boston University Terrier scored an NHL career-high 32 goals for the Winnipeg Jets, and his impressive playing resume also includes three selections to AHL and IHL All-Star teams.

Paul and his wife, Nona have two sons, P.J. and Owen. P.J. was the San Jose Sharks' sixth selection, 162nd overall (fifth round), in the 2005 NHL Entry Draft and in 2008-09, he played in 52 games with San Jose's AHL affiliate, the Worcester Sharks.

MICHAEL SANTOS DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Michael Santos enters his fourth season as director of hockey operations in Nashville with 21 years of experience in the hockey industry. His responsibilities include negotiating player contracts, salary arbitration preparation and research, and negotiating and overseeing minor league affiliation agreements with the Milwaukee Admirals and Cincinnati Cyclones. He is also involved with fiscal and strategic planning, evaluating pro players and managing the club's payroll, salary cap and compliance with the CBA as well as the day-to-day business operations of the hockey department.

Santos began his career with the NHL's New York office in 1988 before working for the AHL's New Haven Nighthawks from 1989-91. He returned to the NHL and spent six seasons as the league's manager of special events, establishing both the SuperSkills and Heroes of Hockey programs, in addition to overseeing arena operations for All-Star Weekend, the Entry Draft and the Stanley Cup Finals.

Santos went to work for the New York Islanders in 1997 and became assistant general manager and director of hockey operations before leaving and becoming director of hockey operations and corporate counsel for the Florida Panthers in 2002. He was named commissioner and president of the North American Hockey League in 2003 and led the Junior "A" league through three seasons of unprecedented growth before arriving in Nashville.

Born in Boston and a native of Lowell, Mass., Santos is a 1986 graduate of Boston College. He received his Master's Degree from the United States Sports Academy in 1989, earned his Juris Doctorate from St. John's University School of Law in 1998, has been a member of the New York state bar since 1999 and serves on USA Hockey's junior and legal councils.

SCOUTING STAFF

JEFF KEALTY CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Kealty, who has been a member of the Predators' scouting staff since the 2001-02 season, was named chief amateur scout on July 25, 2007. The Boston native manages the club's amateur scouting operation in addition to scouting the CHL, NCAA and other junior leagues in North America and Europe. Reporting to assistant general manager Paul Fenton, Kealty also spearheads the team's annual efforts at the NHL Entry Draft.

Kealty's first draft as chief amateur scout in 2008 saw the Predators make seven trades, eventually selecting Boston University forward Colin Wilson (ninth overall) and Tri-City Americans goaltender Chet Pickard (18th overall) in the first round. It was the first time in franchise history the team had two first-round selections.

A former first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty signed as a free agent with Nashville in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury.

Kealty and his wife Lynn reside in Norfolk, Mass.

MARTIN GELINAS DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Martin Gelinas joined the Predators organization in June 2009 as its Director of Player Development following a distinguished playing career that spanned 21 seasons and three decades. In his role, Gelinas is responsible for following and evaluating prospects drafted by Nashville, working with players on all levels throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. He assists them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

A native of Shawinigan, Quebec, Gelinas posted 660 points (309g-351a) in 1,273 NHL games (1988-2008), and also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09) amassing 83 points (53g-30a) in 69 games. The left wing with Edmonton, Quebec, Vancouver, Carolina, Calgary and Florida rounded out his NHL career with the Predators in 2007-08, appearing in 57 games (9g-11a-20pts).

He became the oldest player ever to don a Nashville jersey when he made his debut with the club on October 4, 2007, and was the team's nominee for the Masterton Trophy after having his season cut short due to a knee injury sustained on February 21, 2008. His top offensive season came in 1996-97 with the Canucks when he registered 68 points (35g-33a) in 74 games.

Gelinas won a Stanley Cup with Edmonton in his first full NHL season (1989-90), and also advanced to the Cup final with Vancouver (1994), Carolina (2002) and Calgary (2004). During his 19-season career, he appeared in the Stanley Cup Playoffs 10 times, notching 56 points (23g-33a) in 147 games.

The Los Angeles Kings' first choice (seventh overall) in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, Gelinas was traded to Edmonton in the package that sent Wayne Gretzky to L.A. on Aug. 9, 1988.

Gelinas is based out of Calgary, Alberta, where he resides with his wife, Jane, son, Matthew, and daughters, Cameron and Morgan.

GERRY HELPER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October 1997, and was named senior vice president and special assistant to the president in August of 2009. In his new role, he serves as a liaison with the Chamber of Commerce, Sports Authority, Sports Council, Metro and State Governments and the new Convention Center. Helper, who also serves as president of the Predators Foundation, is responsible for external organizational and franchise communication issues and the development of strategic communications for the Sommet Center. Helper, who was a member of USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99 has been selected as part of the communications team for the 2010 United States Olympic Hockey Team.

In his prior role, Helper oversaw the club's media and public relations efforts, publications, the team's web site, amateur hockey efforts and community relations initiatives. He also served a number of years on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew more than 13,000 people to the Sommet Center.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's vice president of communications. He assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. He also spent time as the NHL's director of information (1987-89) and director of public relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86).

Helper is on the board of directors for the YMCA and the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a BA in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of Leadership Music.

Helper resides in Franklin, Tenn., with his wife, Kim, and daughters, Renee and Abigail.

MICHELLE KENNEDY SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER AND CORPORATE COUNSEL

Michelle Kennedy joined the Predators full-time in March of 2008 as In-House Counsel. Since joining the organization, Michelle's role has grown from her initial charge of dealing with contractual and compliance matters into a larger role that includes serving as the organization's primary contact with the ownership group, in addition to being involved in, and coordinating all legal matters. Kennedy also plays a primary role in managing risk and legal issues for Powers Management, the company that operates the Sommet Center. In this capacity, she is extensively involved with key Sports Authority and Metro Government matters. Kennedy is responsible for oversight of the Human Resources department as well.

Kennedy, also a certified public accountant (CPA), began her career as an auditor at KPMG International, an advisory, audit and tax services company. After nearly five years in public accounting, she joined Vanderbilt University as an associate director of athletics. For six years, she was responsible for oversight of the department's business operations, including ticket operations, facilities, game and event management, as well as oversight of marketing and corporate sponsorship activities. Kennedy continued to work in a consultative capacity for Vanderbilt while attending law school.

Kennedy obtained a B.A. in economics from Vanderbilt University in 1992 and a Juris Doctorate from Vanderbilt University in 2007. A native of Hawesville, Kentucky, Kennedy now resides in Nashville.

CHRIS JUNGHANS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Chris Junghans was named senior vice president, corporate development for the Predators and the Sommet Center in July of 2009. In this role he directs both the Corporate Partnerships and Premium Seats sales and service staff which strive to bring unique customer experiences and partnerships to key customers and brands. In his short tenure he's helped to secure partnerships with some of the world's most recognizable brands including McDonald's, Pepsi and Anheuser Busch.

Prior to his current role Chris led the Premium Seats division for the Predators and Sommet Center. During his tenure as both a director and vice president, he was able to develop key products and services that led to a 100 percent increase in sales. In addition, he helped pioneer the "Bench Seats" program which has become a key source of revenue for most of the NHL's 30 clubs.

Junghans started his career with the Florida Panthers in ticket sales and quickly moved through the ranks. After a successful campaign in Florida, Chris accepted the role of group and suite sales manager with the Predators where his teams consistently ranked near the top in annual group sales dollars.

In 2007 he was promoted to vice president, premium seats sales where he formulated a plan to renew over 60 percent of the team's suite business. The plan and execution proved successful as the team earned a 25 percent increase year over year and became a model for other franchises.

Born in Washington, D.C., Junghans is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte where he was the starting catcher for the UNCC 49ers and was drafted in the 11th round by the Milwaukee Brewers. Chris resides in Franklin, with his wife, Carolina. They have three children, Lia, Alex and Sofie.

BARRY TROTZ HEAD COACH

Guiding the ship for Nashville is Barry Trotz, the first and only head coach in club history. In his 11 seasons and 12 years as the Predators' bench boss, Trotz's mission has evolved from fielding a competitive and hardworking expansion club to directing a young, hungry, hard-working group that is perennially a playoff contender. He is only the second coach in NHL history to spend each of the first 10 seasons as a team's head coach joining the New York Rangers' Lester Patrick (13 seasons, 1926-39), and enters 2009-10 with the eighth-most victories (364) and games coached (820) with a single franchise.

Trotz is the second-longest tenured coach in the NHL behind only Buffalo's Lindy Ruff, and has led the Predators to the sixth-most wins (181) and the third-most home wins (107) since the start of the 2005-06 season. His teams have made the playoffs in four of the past five seasons, averaging more than 97 points per season during that span (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07, 91 in 2007-08 and 88 in 2008-09).

On Nov. 4, 2008 at Vancouver, Trotz became just the 10th coach to reach the 750 games coached mark with a single team, and the 31st in league history. He capped off his 2008-09 season with a trip to Switzerland, where he served as an assistant coach on Canada's silver-medal winning entry at the 2009 IIHF World Championships. It was the third time he has answered the call for Team Canada, also serving as an assistant coach at the 2002 and 2003 World Championships, winning a gold medal in 2003.

The Trotz-led Predators soared to its highest level yet in 2006-07, finishing the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272). Based on the club's success, Trotz finished fourth place in balloting for the 2007 Jack Adams (as voted on by the NHL Broadcasters' Association), given each season to "the NHL coach adjudged to have contributed the most to his team's success." He also served as an assistant coach for the Western Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game, and was named the NHL's Coach of the Year by The Sporting News, an honor determined through a vote of his peers.

The 46-year-old Winnipeg native reached his goal of becoming an NHL head coach when he was named to his current position on Aug. 6, 1997. After a year aggressively scouting talent in North America and Europe, Trotz and his staff made the most of their opportunity by leading the inaugural edition (1998-99) of the Predators to a 28-47-7 record. Starting with a 3-2 victory over the Carolina Hurricanes on Oct. 13, 1998, the Predators' 28 wins were the third-most in expansion history.

On March 1, 2003, Trotz coached his 392nd game with the Nashville Predators, establishing a league record for most games coached by a team's original coach since the NHL's first expansion in 1967. He surpassed current Nashville broadcast analyst Terry Crisp's mark of 391 games coached as the Tampa Bay Lightning's first coach from 1992-97.

Prior to joining the Predators, Trotz spent five seasons (1992-97) as the head coach of the Washington Capitals' primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. He was named head coach of the Baltimore Skipjacks in 1992 after one season as an assistant coach. Following the franchise's relocation to Portland, Maine in 1993, he led the Portland Pirates to two Calder Cup Finals appearances over the next four seasons. In 1994-95, Trotz coached Portland to a Calder Cup Championship and a league-best 43-27-10 record and captured AHL Coach of the Year honors. In 2006, he was honored with election to the Pirates' Hall of Fame.

Trotz began his coaching career in 1984 as an assistant with the University of Manitoba. He then served two seasons (1985-87) as the head coach and general manager of the Dauphin Kings junior hockey club before returning to the University of Manitoba as the head coach in 1987. In January 2001, Trotz was inducted into the University's Hall of Fame.

During the 1987 campaign, Trotz also served as a scout for the Spokane Chiefs (WHL) and a part-time scout for the Capitals. In 1988, he joined Washington as a full-time western scout, and the next season he became the Caps' chief western scout.

Before coaching, Trotz played junior hockey for Regina (WHL) from 1979-83, capturing a WHL championship in 1979-80. The defenseman registered 102 points (19g-83a) and 490 penalty minutes in 204 games.

The popular head coach and his family are active in a variety of service and charitable initiatives in the Middle Tennessee community. This commitment was recognized when Trotz was honored with the Community Spirit Award (in recognition for community service) at the 2005 O'Charley's Dinner of Champions, presented by the Nashville Sports Council. For the past several seasons, the Trotz's have donated $500 to My Friend's House (a United Way agency) for each Nashville victory. He is an active board member for the Williamson County YMCA and the United Way, and in 2004-05, Trotz coached Nashville high school student-athletes. He also works closely with Best Buddies of Tennessee, a nonprofit organization dedicated to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-to-one friendships, integrated employment and leadership development for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Barry and his wife, Kim, reside in Brentwood along with their four children: Shalan, Tyson, Tiana and Nolan.

COACHING STAFF

BRENT PETERSON ASSOCIATE COACH

Brent Peterson enters his 12th season as a member of the Predators' coaching staff. He was originally appointed to the position of assistant coach on June 19, 1998 and was promoted to associate coach on June 19, 2003. Peterson has helped guide the team to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in four of its last five seasons.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winter Hawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winter Hawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Canadian Hockey League's Memorial Cup. He was originally appointed co-coach in 1991-92 and was named head coach for the 1993-94 season. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alta., native spent two seasons (1989-1991) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former Detroit first-round pick (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-1989 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

Peterson teaches area hockey coaches through the Predators' Coaches Clinic series during each season. He is also active in many of the Predators' community-relations initiatives and served as the head coach for Middle Tennessee State University's club team in 2004-05. In 2007, he established the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation to benefit Parkinson's Disease research, education and support groups.

Brent and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin, Tenn. They have three children: Ryan, Brad and Kristin.

PETER HORACHEK ASSISTANT COACH

Peter Horachek was named assistant coach of the Predators on June 19, 2003. In his first four seasons in the NHL, he helped guide the Predators to consecutive Stanley Cup Playoff berths.

In 2002-03, Horachek served as head coach of Nashville's primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League. He guided the Admirals to a 32-27-14-7 record and their first playoff series victory since 1998.

Prior to becoming head coach of the Admirals, Horachek, a former head coach/director of hockey operations for the ECHL's Nashville Knights, won championships as a coach and a player. In 2000-01, Horachek coached the Orlando Solar Bears to the IHL championship. The Solar Bears went 12-4 in the Turner Cup Playoffs and Horachek was named the 2001 IHL Coach of the Year.

The Stoney Creek, Ont., native took over the coaching duties for Orlando in 1999 after serving as an assistant the previous four seasons. After the Orlando franchise ceased operations following the 2000-01 season, Horachek coached the Trenton Titans of the ECHL to a Northern Conference Championship (46-16-10, .708) in 2001-02.

Horachek began his coaching career in the IHL as an assistant coach with Saginaw in 1987-88. He spent one year as a player/assistant coach with Flint, and another as a player/head coach in Norway. Horachek was named head coach/director of hockey operations for the Nashville Knights (ECHL) in 1990.

As a player, Horachek held the title of team captain in four of his five seasons with the Saginaw/Flint Generals and won a Turner Cup Championship in 1984. In 545 career professional games, he tallied 188 goals and 238 assists (188g-238a-426pts).

Horachek and his wife, Stacy, reside in Franklin, Tenn. His son, Cullen, is 18 years old.

COACHING STAFF

ROBERT BOUCHARD VIDEO COACH

Robert Bouchard is in his 12th season with the Predators and his 10th as the team's video coach. He is responsible for video analysis of all pre-scout and Predators game film, contributing to the formulation of scouting reports on the opposition and the production of all instructional/teaching tapes for players and prospects throughout the organization. He also provides on-ice support during conditioning, rookie and training camps as well as during the season.

Bouchard worked as the manager of team services during the club's inaugural season, and his contributions to the team's video work prompted his transition to video coordinator for the 1999-00 season. He was subsequently promoted to his current position during the summer of 2000.

Before joining the Predators, Bouchard worked for 12 years in a variety of hockey operations roles for the National Hockey League in Montreal and Toronto. In his last capacity with the NHL, the Pierrefonds, Quebec native managed more than 500 off-ice officials and video goal judges from the NHL office in Toronto as the officiating coordinator.

During the off-season, he serves as an on-ice instructor at several hockey schools and clinics throughout North America. He is the head instructor at the annual Predators Hockey School, responsible for the planning and integration of all tactical facets of the on-ice program. He was also the head coach of the Father Ryan High School hockey team in Nashville in 2006-07.

Robert, and his children, Ryan and Meghan, reside in Nashville, Tenn.

DAVID GOOD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his sixth season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators. He joined the Predators in July of 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators system. Good also runs the club's prospect career development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School in the off-season.

Good was instrumental in developing a program for Steve Sullivan that allowed the Predators forward to return to the ice on January 12, 2009 after almost a two-year absence that included missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff games due to a back injury. In June of 2009, Sullivan won the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player that best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey."

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the director of speed-strength and conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and also served as a consultant for the Long Beach Ice Dogs (ECHL). The Colorado native served as the assistant speed-strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2003 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs (IHL). He also served as strength and conditioning coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the student assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor of arts degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado at Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning and Olympic weightlifting.

MITCH KORN GOALTENDING COACH

Mitch Korn is in his 12th season as the goaltending coach for the Nashville Predators and in his 19th season in the NHL. He works with all netminders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), amateur leagues and Europe.

Korn has helped Nashville goaltenders burst onto the NHL scene in each of the last two seasons. In 2007-08, Nashville netminder Dan Ellis develop into a No. 1 goalie after playing in just one NHL game prior to that season. Ellis led the NHL in save percentage (.924) and tied for third in the NHL in shutouts (6). Last season it was Pekka Rinne's turn as he took over the No. 1 goalie position after appearing in just three NHL contests prior to 2008-09. Rinne finished in the League's Top 10 in goals-against-average (2.38), save percentage (.917) and shutouts (7), establishing a franchise record. Korn has also helped former Predator goaltenders Tomas Vokoun and Chris Mason develop into top NHL goaltenders.

Prior to joining the Predators on July 23, 1998, Korn spent seven seasons coaching the netminders in the Buffalo Sabres organization, where he enjoyed great success while working with two-time Hart Trophy-winner Dominik Hasek. Under Korn's tutelage, Hasek captured four Vezina Trophies and led the NHL with the best save percentage five times. Korn also saw Buffalo's goaltending tandem (Hasek and Hall-of-Famer Grant Fuhr) capture the NHL's Jennings Trophy (lowest team goals-against average) during the 1994-95 season. Besides Hasek and Fuhr, Korn also coached Olaf Kolzig and Martin Biron.

The New York City native recently retired from Miami University's Goggin Ice Center in Oxford, Ohio where he worked in a variety of capacities for 30 years. Korn, who runs goaltending and defensemen schools around the country in the off-season, also contributes regularly to several hockey publications including USA Hockey Magazine and Goalies' World.

Korn began his college hockey career at Kent State University in the late 1970s and started his coaching career at KSU in 1979. He continued coaching the goaltenders at Miami University until joining the Sabres in 1991. Korn has more than 34 years of coaching experience.

Mitch's daughter, Ashley, is a senior at Miami University, and skates on the university's Varsity Synchronized Skating Team.

TRAINING STAFF

DAN REDMOND HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dan Redmond is in his 12th season as the head athletic trainer of the Predators. Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, Redmond spent five seasons as the athletic trainer of the Portland Pirates of the American Hockey League (where he worked with Barry Trotz, head coach of the Predators) and four seasons with the AHL's Baltimore Skipjacks. He also spent three years (1987-1989) in the Cleveland Indians organization as the athletic trainer for their developmental clubs. He served two stints as a graduate assistant with Radnor High School (Radnor, Pa.) and Temple University Sports Medicine Center.

Redmond is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He worked his 1,500th game in professional hockey as an athletic trainer on January 13, 2009.

Redmond resides in Lebanon, Tenn., with his wife, Barbara, daughter, Danielle and son, Sean.

PETE ROGERS HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers is in his 12th season as head equipment manager of the Nashville Predators. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers also works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure.

Rogers was the head equipment manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2008 NHL All-Star game in Dallas. He has served as the equipment manager for Team USA at the 2006 Winter Olympics and at the IIHF World Championships in 2005 and from 1998-2002. Rogers also worked as Team USA's equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany. The veteran worked his 1,500th game as an equipment manager in professional hockey on January 10, 2009.

Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, the SUNY Brockport graduate spent seven seasons as the equipment manager and director of team travel for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. Rogers spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the Hampton Roads Admirals of the ECHL in 1989-90.

Pete, his wife, Judy, and daughter, Alexandra, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

BROADCASTERS

PETE WEBER PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

"Voice of the Predators" Pete Weber enters his 12th season as the team's primary play-by-play announcer in 2009-10. His insight into the team and the game of hockey is a regular feature in local sports talk radio and television, and he also consistently contributes to the Predators' web site and team publications.

Pete is slated to be a "Western Conference Insider" on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio's "NHL Home Ice" service (XM 204) once again in 2009-10, and will also join "HockeyBuzz Radio" as a co-host this season. In addition to his duties with the team, Weber co-hosted SportsNight (a popular local sportstalk radio program) from July 2003 until August 2005 and has filled in as a program host for ESPN Radio. Since 2005, Pete has joined in on the Triple-A baseball Nashville Sounds' broadcasts and also produced and hosted weekly podcasts: "This Week in the Minor Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber spent two seasons (1995-97) as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Buffalo Sabres, three seasons (1978-81) as the color analyst for the Los Angeles Kings and also served as host of "Hockey Night with the Buffalo Sabres" from 1990-93. Along with his 22 seasons of NHL experience, Weber has served as a play-by-play voice in baseball (Buffalo Bisons, 1983-95), basketball (Seattle SuperSonics, 1981-82) and football (University of Buffalo, 1992). He has called the hockey action for the University of Notre Dame (1974-76) and the University at Buffalo (1976-78) and was part of the Buffalo Bills' broadcast team during their four Super Bowl seasons (1990-93).

Weber was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999. He was part of a winning Predators' broadcast effort in winning a regional Emmy in 2003, and won another as co-host of the 2008 Mid-South Regional Emmy-winning telecast.

The Galesburg, Ill., native is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Weber and his wife, Claudia, reside in Nashville.

TERRY CRISP COLOR ANALYST

Entering his 12th season with the Predators, Terry Crisp provides the color commentary on the club's television and radio broadcasts and helps comprise one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the league. He regularly contributes insight to the Predators' web site and local sports talk radio and worked as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships.

Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and during the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals, and has served in a similar capacity for TSN in past years.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He has won three Stanley Cup Championships, two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989), and he is one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach. The Parry Sound, Ont., native has a unique perspective on expansion teams: he was a player with the inaugural editions of the St. Louis Blues in 1967 and the New York Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October, 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Nashville head coach Barry Trotz broke the mark in 2003. In the 2004 NHL Stanley Cup Finals, the Lightning defeated the Flames – the team he coached to the Cup in 1989. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

Terry and his wife, Sheila, reside in Nashville. The Crisp's have three children – sons Tony and Jeff, and daughter Caley.

BROADCASTERS

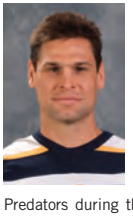
RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Tom Callahan enters his second season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team in 2009-10. Callahan will continue to assume radio play-by-play duties on the Predators radio network for the 55 Predators games aired on FOX Sports Tennessee, while contributing to the other 27 broadcasts as a rink-side reporter for all games that are not televised (or are televised exclusively by a national rightsholder). For those games, the 12-season team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color commentator) will be in the radio booth.

Callahan, who also contributes regularly to nashvillepredators.com and serves as a face in the community for the organization, came to Nashville from the American Hockey League's Peoria Rivermen, where he served as director of communications in 2007-08. Prior to working in Peoria, the Lackawanna, N.Y., native spent four seasons with the Augusta Lynx of the ECHL, and three seasons with the Elmira Jackals of the then-United Hockey League (now International Hockey League), serving in similar positions. He also has experience in then-Western Professional Hockey League (now Central Hockey League) and in minor league baseball.

Tom, who is a 1998 graduate of St. John Fisher College in Rochester, N.Y., resides in Nashville with his wife Meaghan.



STU GRIMSON

Stu Grimson enters his second season as a color analyst on some of the Predators radio broadcasts. Grimson, who played in 30 games with the Predators during the 2001-02 season, posted 17 goals, 22 assists and 2,113 penalty minutes in 729 career games with Calgary, Chicago, Anaheim, Detroit, Hartford, Carolina, Los Angeles and Nashville from 1988-2002.

After retiring from hockey following the 2001-02 season, Grimson returned to school and graduated from the University of Memphis in December of 2005. The Kamloops, British Columbia native then went to work as in-house counsel for the NHLPA for two years before returning to Nashville where he currently works as an attorney with Kay, Griffin, Enkema & Brothers PLLC.

Stu resides in Franklin with his wife, Pam, their three daughters, Erin, Hannah and Jayne, and son, Kristjan.

MARK HOWARD

RINKSIDE REPORTER

Mark Howard enters his second season as a rinkside reporter for all Predators' home games on FOX Sports Tennessee. Joining Pete Weber and Terry Crisp on the broadcast, Howard provides player and coach interviews during pre- and post-game coverage as well as intermissions.

Howard hosts the award-winning Wakeup Zone on WGFX, 104.5 The Zone which airs weekdays from 6-10 a.m. He also does a radio pre and post-game show for Titans Radio and has worked as a television host of TSSAA for the State High School football and basketball championships since 2004.

Prior to hosting The Wakeup Zone, Howard was a sports anchor at WTVF-TV (CBS) in Nashville and worked for 103 WKDF doing morning sports from 1997-2002. The West Hartford, Conn., native, who also worked in television in Evansville, Ind., from 1983-86, has called action for Triple-A baseball in Wichita and Evansville and college hockey at Cornell. He graduated from Ithaca College in upstate New York in 1980 with a degree in history and political science.

Mark is single and has a 7-year-old son Jack.

KELLY SPARKS

BROADCAST COORDINATOR/ WEB HOST

Kelly Sparks, who joined the Predators in February 2007 and is the team's broadcast coordinator, will also be serving as a host for nashvillepredators.com in 2009-10.

The Paintsville, Kentucky native worked for ABC's affiliate WKBO-TV in Bowling Green, Kentucky as a news anchor, producer and reporter prior to joining the Predators. Sparks attended Western Kentucky University where she majored in broadcast news and public relations, and minored in marketing.

Sparks resides in Hendersonville with her husband Mitch.

BROADCAST PARTNERS

FOX SPORTS TENNESSEE

FOX Sports Tennessee enters its 12th season as the exclusive cable and satellite home of the Nashville Predators, televising 55 regular-season games to almost four million viewers across Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi and portions of Alabama.

Calling all of the Predators' action on FOX Sports Tennessee are play-by-play announcer Pete Weber and analyst Terry Crisp. Mark Howard returns for his second season of rink-side reporting at home games.

Predators LIVE follows each game telecast on FOX Sports Tennessee and features player interviews and coaches' press conferences. Predators' players and personnel will also be highlighted on other original programs on FOX Sports Tennessee.

The regional sports networks serving the Southeast – FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.6 million cable and satellite television households in seven states in the Southeast and are the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Hawks, Carolina Hurricanes, Charlotte Bobcats, Memphis Grizzlies and the Nashville Predators, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference. SportSouth reaches more than 9.4 million homes in six Southeastern states and is the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Thrashers and Southern Conference. SportSouth also offers expanded coverage of the University of South Carolina and University of Tennessee. Combined, the four networks produce more than 800 live local events each year.

To learn more about FOX Sports Tennessee, please visit www.foxsports.com/south.

PREDATORS RADIO NETWORK

104.5 The Zone (WGFX 104.5-FM) returns for its fifth season as the flagship radio station of the Nashville Predators. Play-by-play announcer Tom Callahan, who returns for his second season behind the microphone, will call the action for the club's 55 games that air on FS Tennessee. For the Predators' other 27 contests, he will join the longtime team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color analyst) to conduct interviews and provide reports around the arena.

Several regional affiliates complete the broadcast radio network of the Nashville Predators during the hockey season, as games are broadcast throughout the state of Tennessee, as well as parts of Kentucky and Alabama.

WGFX will carry all preseason, regular season and post-season Predators games that do not conflict with its previous broadcast commitments, while Nashville's 97.1 RQQ (WRQQ 97.1-FM) will broadcast the balance of the schedule. All regular-season and playoff games will include a post-game show, with those following home games originating from the Sommet Center's Suite Level Club.

WGFX afternoon personality Willy Daunic will be the primary host for radio broadcasts, providing game analysis, player interviews and profiles, NHL scores and highlights before, during and after the final horn. 104.5 The Zone will continue to be the home of hockey on Nashville's radio dial in 2009-10, airing player/coach shows, game-day updates, weekly reports and additional weekly programming.

104.5 The Zone features highly-rated morning (The Wake-Up Zone with Mark Howard, Frank Wycheck and Kevin Ingram, Monday-Friday, 6:00-10:00 a.m. CT) and afternoon-drive (The Sports Zone with George Plaster, Willy Daunic and Darren McFarland, Monday-Friday, 3:00-7:00 p.m.) shows, with both welcoming Predators players, coaches and other personnel on as guests on a regular basis. The Sports Zone Pre-Game Show (Monday-Friday, 2:00-3:00 p.m. CT), hosted by McFarland, dedicates an entire show to hockey each week. Additionally, the station hosts a Predators player's show live in downtown Nashville during the season.

Learn more about 104.5 The Zone at www.1045thezone.com. Learn more about 97.1 RQQ at www.971rqq.com.

POWERS MANAGEMENT

Powers Management | 501 Broadway | (615) 770-2000 | Fax: (615) 770-2010

The facility management company Powers Management was established in 1997, and it took over the day-to-day operation and management of Nashville's premier sports and entertainment facility, the Sommet Center, on July 1, 2000. Inheriting the building's original management contract from Leisure Management, Inc., Powers Management is retained by the Nashville Sports Authority and Metro Nashville.

Hugh Lombardi joined the Sommet Center in June 2002 and oversees the building's day-to-day operations and event bookings as Powers Management's senior vice president/general manager and chief operating officer. Lombardi and his staff are responsible for administration, box office, operations, engineering, finance, marketing, booking and maintenance.

Since its opening on December 18, 1996, more than 12 million fans have entered the doors to "Experience the Excellence" of the Sommet Center, home of world-class entertainment and sporting events. The Sommet Center hosts more than 150 events each year, ranging from Predators games to concerts, family shows and community events. Additionally, the state-of-the-art facility hosts a large number of conventions and business conferences. It has ranked in the top 30 in overall arena ticket sales while averaging more than 20 concerts per year each of the past three years. The last two years (2007-08), the Sommet Center has been nominated for the Pollstar Concert Industry Venue of the Year, and in 2008 it won both the Large Concert Venue of the Year Award from the International Entertainment Buyers Association and Prime Site Award from Facilities Magazine.

A report issued in 2004 estimated that the Sommet Center had an economic impact of over $618 million on downtown Nashville from 1997-2003, and Sommet Center events annually are responsible for more than $100 million of economic impact. Four days of the NCAA men's basketball tournament means over $6 million of economic impact on the community, while a full season of Predators hockey brings approximately $80 million in impact.

The one million-square-foot facility, located in downtown Nashville (corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue), has also spurred downtown growth in the last eight years, inspiring further development that includes the Country Music Hall of Fame, the Frist Museum of the Visual Arts and the Schermerhorn Symphony Center.

The Sommet Center serves a variety of "non-traditional" functions for Davidson County, the city of Nashville and local residents as well. The Sommet Center tower is home to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, a Sirius/XM Radio studio, and the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, which hosts more than 500,000 tourists annually. The Sommet Center features The Suite Level Club, a 260-seat fine-dining experience, which is open before and after games and hosts a number of banquets and receptions.

The arena also houses more than 6,000 square feet of meeting room space and a 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall that is available for rent and used by a number of touring acts. Metro's Registry of Deeds and the Metro North Police precinct are also located inside the Sommet Center.

PREDATORS FOUNDATION

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation strives to meet the educational, social, health and cultural needs of the community by offering unique resources and financial support to local youth-oriented organizations. Through several fundraisers held throughout the year, the Predators Foundation has awarded more than $2 million to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-area charities and community service organizations since its creation.

12TH ANNUAL FIRST TENNESSEE PREDATORS FOUNDATION DR. MAC MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Nashville Predators Foundation hosts its annual First Tennessee Dr. Mac Memorial Golf Tournament each September. In 2004, the tournament's name was changed in honor of the late Dr. James McPherson, who served as the Predators' dentist from 1998-2004. The 2009 tournament raised more than $50,000 for the Nashville Predators Foundation.

UNMASKED BALL

In past years, Hollywood, Hawaiian Luau and Disco Ball have been themes for the Unmasked Ball, a black-tie affair featuring Predators players, coaching staff and management. The Unmasked Ball features a live and silent auction and has raised more than $1 million since its inception in 1998.

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

The Predators Foundation held their inaugural Wine Festival & Tasting in 2006. The 2009 event consisted of a wine tasting on the floor of the Sommet Center and featured samples from nearly 200 wines, in addition to Budweiser beer and assorted spirits. Levy Restaurants also served heavy hors d'oeuvres. The evening included Predators personnel, an extensive silent auction and photo opportunities with Predators mascot GNASH.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each year the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. All applicants must reside within Middle Tennessee, excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game. For more information, visit nashvillepredators.com/community or contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2321.

Other events and activities that raise funds for the Nashville Predators Foundation include:

DEX imaging & mailing
Official Office Equipment Provider for Your Predators

DEX SCORE & WIN

In 2008-09, the Nashville Predators Foundation and DEX Imaging and Mailing teamed up to raise $29,150 through the DEX Score and Win program. Every time a Predator scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win, DEX made a donation to the Predators Foundation that was distributed to 11 Middle Tennessee charities. For every goal scored by a forward or a win by a goaltender, DEX contributed $100. The contribution was $150 for goals scored by a defenseman and there was a $200 bonus for hat tricks and shutouts.

The 2008-09 campaign marked the fourth season of the DEX Score and Win Program. The program was launched midway through the 2005-06 season and brought in $18,750 that year. The program has now amassed more than $115,000 for local charities over the past four seasons.

PREDATORS FOUNDATION

GAME NIGHT/ONLINE SILENT AUCTION

The Predators Foundation hosts a silent auction table at each Predators home game behind section 120 on the main concourse. Also at the auction table, at various games throughout the season, the Predators Foundation will be selling autographed pucks as part of a fundraiser called "Holiday Mystery Puck." For a $25 donation to the Foundation, fans will have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player. Additionally, Predators Foundation online auctions are hosted on nhl.com.

BIRTHDAY AND SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT MEGATRON MESSAGES

For a donation to the Predators Foundation, fans have an opportunity to put birthday, anniversary and engagement announcements on the Megatron during Predators home games. In-game center-hung scoreboard rates are $50 for a birthday/anniversary announcements and $100 for an engagement announcement (based on game availability). To schedule, please visit www.nashvillepredators.com/scoreboard or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

ZAMBONI RIDES/PRE-GAME VISIT TO THE PENALTY BOX

For a $100 donation to the Nashville Predators Foundation, Predators fans can ride the Zamboni or sit in the visiting team's penalty box during the Nashville Predators' pre-game skate. To schedule, please visit www.nashvillepredators.com/zamboniride and www.nashvillepredators.com/penaltybox, or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's Community Relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses to raise money for their own causes. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit nashvillepredators.com/donations.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION GRANT RECIPIENTS

In 2008-09, the Nashville Predators Foundation distributed over 100 grants totaling more than $290,000 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations.

GRANT APPLICATIONS

The Predators Foundation places priority on giving back to the local communities where its players, employees and fans live and work. Foundation grants range from $500 to a maximum of $10,000. Organizations must have a 501(c)3 status to apply. To request an application, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2321.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission to "work hard, play hard, and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season – from ownership, to players, management and staff.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2008-09 initiatives included Second Harvest Food Bank collections, a Marine Corps Toys for Tots Drive, Salvation Army Kettle Drives, monthly hospital visits, a Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway, a Holiday Party for kids, the Teacher of the Month Program and participation in the league-wide Hockey Fights Cancer awareness month.

PREDATORS FOUNDATION

STICK TO READING = SUCCEEDING

Stick to Reading = Succeeding is reading program that encourages young students to read. Each month Predators players and mascot GNASH visit local schools, read books to kids and encourage students to make reading a life-long habit.

TEACHER OF THE MONTH

The Teacher of the Month program recognizes teachers in the greater Nashville area for their accomplishments. The Predators select teachers based upon the principal's portrayal of how the teacher has impacted students, school faculty and others around them. The Predators target a different county in the area each month and applications are distributed by the Predators to the principals. The winning teacher each month receives a surprise visit from Predators mascot GNASH, a certificate, tickets to a Predators game and recognition on nashvillepredators.com. For more information, please contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

PENCIL PARTNER PROGRAM

The Pencil Partner Program partners the Nashville Predators with Hume-Fogg High School and Lockeland Design Center Elementary School to provide unique opportunities to local youth. High school students have the opportunity to be a sportswriter for a day, where they watch a game from the press box, attend the post-game press conference with Head Coach Barry Trotz and write a follow-up game story. Other opportunities in the program include mascot GNASH welcoming the students to school on the first day after summer vacation, complimentary tickets, donated autographed memorabilia, participation in hockey clinics and the opportunity for students to volunteer at Predators fundraising events.

PLAYERS' WIVES INITIATIVES

Throughout the year, the players' wives organize charitable drives to benefit the families of Nashville and Middle Tennessee. Fans are encouraged to bring donations during these games.

DRIVE DATES

Sat.	Sept. 26	vs. Carolina	School supplies drive benefiting Pencil Foundation
Thu.	Oct. 15	vs. Chicago	Arena drive benefiting the Martha O'Bryan Center
Sat.	Nov. 14	vs. Montreal	Second Harvest Food Bank food drive

Sat.	Feb. 6	vs. San Jose	Arena drive benefiting Ronald McDonald House
Sat.	March 20	vs. Columbus	Arena drive benefiting Against the Grain

FRIDAY FUNDAY

Throughout the season, Predators players' wives, girlfriends and mascot GNASH participate in the Friday FunDay program by visiting local elementary schools on a Friday to read books to the students and talk about the importance of education.

PLAYERS' CHARITABLE INVOLVEMENT

Nashville Predators players, management and mascot GNASH made more than 250 appearances in Middle Tennessee during the 2008-09 season. Over the years, players have donated game tickets and have visited several non-profit organizations throughout the Nashville community. Several organizations have benefited from the Predators' charitable ticket initiatives including:

Against the Grain, Bethlehem Centers, Big Brothers/ Big Sisters, Books from Birth of Middle Tennessee, Janet's Plant, the Martha O'Bryan Center, Ronald McDonald House, Safe Haven Family Shelter, St. Luke's Community House, STARS and Youth Encouragement Services.

COACH TROTZ AND MY FRIEND'S HOUSE

Head Coach Barry Trotz and his wife Kim have provided a $500 donation to My Friend's House for every Predators home win since the start of the 1999-2000 season. Together, they have donated more than $130,000.

YOUTH & AMATEUR HOCKEY

The Nashville Predators continue their efforts to enhance the awareness and opportunity of youth hockey in Middle Tennessee. The Predators have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of the sport at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches' clinics, players' clinics, ice time at the Sommet Center and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators' home games. For more information on these programs, please visit nashvillepredators.com/youthhockey, or contact the Predators Amateur and Youth Hockey Department at (615) 770-2372.

STREET PRIDE

The NHL's league-wide street youth hockey program, NHL Street, serves local community centers and schools by providing this free athletic and educational program.

The NHL and the Nashville Predators provide street hockey sticks, rubber pucks, nets and protective goalie equipment, including start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration. The Predators also provide informative manuals for staff and participants, as well as follow-up with program centers and player/coach clinics.

There are currently 40 youth facilities that participate in the Street Pride program including Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Middle Tennessee, Metro Parks and Recreation, Williamson County Parks and Recreation, and the YMCA of Middle Tennessee. This free grassroots hockey development program emphasizes that all a kid needs to play hockey are sneakers, breaking down any socio-economic barriers associated with the sport.

PREDATORS GET OUT AND LEARN! HOCKEY PROGRAM

The Predators G.O.A.L! program introduces the game of hockey to aspiring future Predators, without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. This free introductory program is designed for kids 9-and-under with no prior experience. G.O.A.L! is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction, making the program ideal for any family! The Predators are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since its inception in fall 2005, more than 750 participants have graduated from G.O.A.L!, and in 2009 the program expanded to the Knoxville area.

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

"Taking Hockey to the Streets" is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The visit includes a street hockey game, giveaways for the young players, and routine appearances by a player, coach, or team mascot GNASH.

HOT SHOTS

Hot Shots is a free, traveling, interactive hockey experience that aims to educate elementary and middle school students on basic hockey skills and the Predators. During the academic year, Hot Shots visits over 25 schools, reaching more than 3,500 students. The Predators provide all necessary equipment and instruction at no cost. The program continues into the summer as the Hot Shots Summerfest Tour travels to youth camps educating young fans on the sport of hockey.

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host a hockey school each July at Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville which is open to boys and girls ages 8-14. Youth attending the hockey school are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, as well as intensive dry-land conditioning, video analysis and "chalk talk" sessions. The hockey school emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey – stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing.

Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention, equipment maintenance and perspectives from the Predators scouting and coaching staffs.

The Predators also host the "Little Preds" Hockey School, an evening camp, during the summer at A-Game Sportsplex in Franklin. The school is offered to children ages 4-7.

COACHES CORNER

In an ongoing effort to foster and improve youth hockey opportunities in Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Predators offer support to youth hockey coaches at all levels. Through partnerships with flexxCOACH and USA Hockey, the Preds are able to present tools that any coach can use to improve his or her knowledge, and in turn, the team's on-ice performance.

LOCAL HOCKEY RECOGNITION

Each month during the season, the Nashville Predators recognize an ice or inline player and a volunteer in the Nashville area who demonstrate character skills that make youth hockey a better experience for all involved. During the season, the Youth Hockey Player of the Month and Youth Hockey Volunteer of the Month are recognized at a Predators home game. In addition to individual recognition, the Predators recognize teams that make up the Tennessee amateur and youth hockey scene through the Tennessee Hockey Team Spotlight feature at nashvillepredators.com.

PREDATORS CUP

The Predators Cup is the annual Tennessee State High School Hockey Championship tournament. Established during the Predators 1999-00 season, it serves as a platform to highlight the top high school hockey teams in the state and is hosted by the Nashville Predators each spring at the Sommet Center. Since the inaugural tournament, seven teams from Middle Tennessee, three teams from Memphis and one team from Knoxville have won the Cup.

BLUELINER OF THE GAME

An opportunity to experience the excitement from ice level offered as a silent auction item during Predators home games. Youth hockey players get the opportunity of a lifetime as their name is called during the starting lineup, they skate to the blue line, then stand alongside their favorite Predators player during the National Anthem.

JERSEY SPONSORSHIP

As an ongoing partnership, the Nashville Predators partner with local ice hockey leagues as their official jersey provider. More than 700 youth hockey players on 48 teams at Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville and A-Game Sportsplex in Franklin wear the Predators logo. This sponsorship marked the first time in club history that the Predator logo was worn by area hockey associations, strengthening the relationship between the youth hockey community and the NHL Club.

SKATE AT THE SOMMET CENTER

Since the Predators inaugural season in 1998-99, thousands of youth hockey players have had the opportunity to skate on the same surface as NHL players. As a ticket fundraiser program, "Mites On Ice" is offered to hockey teams ages 9-and-under for the chance to skate in front of 17,000-plus fans during intermissions at select Predator home games. Adult and youth hockey teams can also skate on the same as ice as the pros through the "Play Where the Preds Play" program. Teams have the opportunity play an exhibition game at the Sommet Center before or after a Nashville home game to raise money for their team. In 2008, the team announced a joint venture with the Greater Nashville Area Scholastic Hockey (GNASH) league that will see area high school teams play at the Sommet Center as the featured High School Game of the Week.

For more information on these programs, please visit nashvillepredators.com/youthhockey or contact the Predators Amateur and Youth Hockey Department at (615) 770-2372.

ADMIRALS COACHING STAFF

LANE LAMBERT HEAD COACH

Lane Lambert enters his third season as head coach of the Admirals, and fourth season with the organization in 2009-10. Lambert, the 17th coach in Admirals history, has guided Milwaukee to the Calder Cup Playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm, posting a combined 93-51-16 record. In 2008-09, Lambert led a young squad to 49-22-9 record, winning the West Division while tying for the most points (107) in the American Hockey League. The win total tied a club record since the team joined the AHL for the 2001-02 campaign.

For the second straight season, the Ads succeeded behind Lambert's attention to play in the defensive zone. Milwaukee was one of just two teams to hold its opponents to fewer than 200 goals over the course of the season, and its 87 percent efficiency while shorthanded was tops in the AHL. The Admirals were especially hot during a three-month stretch from Oct. 31, 2008 – Jan. 13 2009 where they went 24-5-3.

Prior to joining the Admirals as an assistant coach in 2006-07, the Melfort, Saskatchewan native served as an assistant for the Bridgeport Sound Tigers, the New York Islanders' AHL affiliate, in 2005-06 where he helped to lead the Sound Tigers to a 38-33-9 record and a Calder Cup playoff berth.

Prior to his position in Bridgeport, Lambert was the head coach of the Prince George Cougars of the Western Hockey League for two seasons from 2003-05. In 2002-03 he was an assistant for the Moose Jaw Warriors (WHL), helping the team to a 36-22-11-3 record and a second-place finish in the East Division.

Lambert finished an 18-year playing career with the Houston Aeros in 2000-01. Originally, the Detroit Red Wings' second selection, 25th overall (second round), in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, Lambert finished his NHL career with 125 points (58g-67a) and 521 penalty minutes in 283 games with Detroit, the New York Rangers and Quebec from 1983-89. Lambert enjoyed his most successful NHL campaign with the Nordiques in 1987-88, recording career-highs in points (41) and assists (28) in 61 contests.

The 44-year old Lambert also gained significant playing experience in both the American and International Hockey Leagues. He posted 107 points (44g-63a) in 115 games during three seasons in the AHL with Adirondack, Halifax and New Haven and notched 131 points (69a-62a) in 302 contests during five seasons with Cleveland and Houston of the IHL.

Lambert won a pair of championships as a player. The first was an AHL Calder Cup title with Adirondack in 1986. He also helped the Houston Aeros claim the IHL's Turner Cup championship in 1999.

Lambert and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Taylor and Samantha.

IAN HERBERS ASSISTANT COACH

Ian Herbers enters his first season as assistant coach of the Milwaukee Admirals in 2009-10 after spending two seasons as head coach of the ECHL's Johnstown Chiefs. The Jasper, Alta., native's duties with the club include running the defense corps on the bench and pre-scouting opponents.

With Herbers at the helm, Johnstown posted a 73-60-11 record from 2007-09, which included a Kelly Cup playoff berth in 2008. Prior to his time with the Chiefs, Herbers spent three seasons with the Saginaw Spirit of the Ontario Hockey League – two as an associate head coach (2005-07) and one as an assistant (2004-05). The Spirit advanced to the OHL Playoffs in each of Herbers' final two seasons with the club, compiling an 80-51-5 record in that span. He started his coaching career as an assistant with the American Hockey League's San Antonio Rampage in 2003-04.

The 42-year-old Herbers ended a his 12-season professional career in 2003-04. A 10th-round selection (190th overall) of the Buffalo Sabres in the 1987 Entry Draft, Herbers played 65 career National Hockey League games with the Edmonton Oilers (1993-94), Tampa Bay Lightning (1999-2000) and the New York Islanders (1999-2000), totaling five assists and 79 penalty minutes. He also won a pair of league titles with the AHL's Cape Breton Oilers in 1993 and the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers in 1997.

Herbers played 586 games in parts of ten seasons in the AHL and IHL with the Oilers, Vipers and Cleveland Lumberjacks from 1992-2001, amassing 147 points (40g-107a) and 1,113 penalty minutes. He also played professionally in the United Kingdom for two seasons prior to finishing his playing career with the Flint Generals of the United Hockey League in 2003-04.

Herbers played four seasons at the University of Alberta from 1988-92, winning three CWUAA titles and captaining the Golden Bears to a University Cup title as Canadian Interuniversity Sport national champions as a senior.

ACQUIRED
Feb. 16, 2004 – Acquired by Nashville from Chicago for a second-round selection in the 2004 Entry Draft (Ryan Garlock) and a second-round selection in the 2005 Entry Draft (Michael Blunden).

CAREER NOTES: Has posted 190 points (73g-117a) in 191 games as a Predator… Nashville has gone 110-60-21 with him in the lineup.

2008-09: Won the NHL's 2009 Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey," becoming the first player in franchise history to win an NHL award… Returned to action on Jan. 10, 2009 vs. Chicago after missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff contests due to a back injury. The layoff spanned 687 days, making him just the third player in the post-World War II era to miss more than 600 days due to injury, then return to action (joining Jim Peplinski, Calgary and Mario Lemieux, Pittsburgh)… Nashville went 22-14-5 with him in the lineup and 18-20-3 without him… Notched 27 points (11g-16a) in the final 25 games of the season… Finished the campaign with points (3g-9a-12pts) in seven of the last nine games, including a five-game assist streak from March 26-April 3 (6a), tying a career high… Posted his 600th career NHL point with an assist on March 28 vs. Los Angeles, then scored the overtime game winner later that night… Played in his 750th career game on March 12 vs. the N.Y. Rangers… Registered his first point in 154 games in the second contest of his return – Jan. 13, 2009 at Toronto, and netted his first goal in two years on Feb. 18, 2009 at Detroit… Signed a two-year contract on July 1, 2009.

2007-08: Missed the entire season due to a back injury.

2006-07: Finished fourth on the team in scoring (22g-38a-60pts) despite playing in just 57 games… Tied for third on the team in game-winning goals (4) and finished 10th in the NHL in shooting percentage (18.0%)… Led the team in shorthanded goals (3) and ranked fourth on the team in power-play points (6g-17a-23pts)… Posted 17 multi-point games, including six three-point contests… Scored the game-winning goal (3g-2a-5pts) in three straight games from Jan. 5-9… Skated in his 700th NHL game on Dec. 30 vs. Boston… Scored his sixth career hat trick in a 6-0 win vs. Ottawa on Dec. 14. It was the franchise's second natural hat trick and set a team record for the fastest three goals by an individual (5:56)… Posted his 100th point as a Predator on Oct. 5 vs. Chicago… Missed 24 games, including the final 19 games of the season, due to injury.

2005-06: Tied for the team lead with 31 goals and ranked second on the club in scoring (31g-37a-68pts)… Tied for third on the club in assists (37) and tied for second in game-winning goals (5)… Finished second on the club with a career-high 13 power-play goals and third on the team with 34 power-play points (13g-21a)… Tied for the team lead in game-deciding shootout goals with two… Established a career-high 10-game point streak (5g-13a-18pts) from Mar. 7-25… Posted four straight multi-point games (2g-7a-9pts) from March 7-14… Registered his 500th career point and 300th assist at Calgary on March 7… Scored his fourth shorthanded goal of the season at Detroit on Jan. 24, tying him for the franchise record. The goal also marked the 200th of his career… Scored his 20th and 21st goal of the season vs. the N.Y. SCOUTING REPORT: A complete defenseman who can influence a game at either end of the ice… Can create offense with either a hard point shot or a creative pass… Smooth puckhandler at top speed… Has the size and strength to play physical in his own end… Can effectively diagnose developing plays and make a quick decision.

QUOTEBOOK: "He's an excellent two-way defenseman. He has very good hockey sense. Moves the puck out of his end, puts on great pressure to get by the forecheck. He competes very hard around his own end. It's a matter of him developing physically; he has a good-sized frame and it looks like he will continue to fill out and get stronger. He's got great work ethic, great character, all the intangibles in place to keep improving and develop into a very good player." - Predators North American Amateur Scout Tom Nolan

SCOUTING REPORT: A stay-at-home defenseman with physical presence… Has the size to hurt the opposition in the defensive zone... Is very mobile and good on his angles for a big man... Makes good decisions with and without the puck… Possesses the ability to skate the puck up ice to create offense… Is a defensive defenseman, but has really developed his offensive game.

QUOTEBOOK: "He's a stay-at-home defenseman. He is an extremely good skater for his size, and has a very good physical presence down low. He is also a good passer. He was passed over last year in the draft, but I think as far as his puck-moving ability, he made a lot of strides this season and I think we've just seen the surface of how good he can be." – Predators European Scout Lucas Bergman

SCOUTING REPORT: Has terrific work ethic, good size and strength… Pressures the puck, finishes checks and is strong on the boards and in the corners… Protects the puck well and wins battles in the hard areas… Goes hard to the net and is tough to move once he gets there… Possesses good hands, vision and hockey sense to make plays… Can unleash a heavy shot off a quick release… Accountable away from the puck and strong on face-offs... Good leadership as captain of his high school team.

QUOTEBOOK: "Oliver has good size and is a hard-working guy. Everyone talks about what a character-guy he is. Everybody talks about him as a captain. We also think that along with his size, he has a really good work ethic, good hockey sense and decent skill. In his draft-eligible year, he broke his collarbone twice, so he didn't play a lot. Otherwise, he may have been picked in the first three rounds." – North American Amateur Scout David Westby

SCOUTING REPORT: A gritty, two-way player who plays much bigger than his frame… Possesses very good hockey sense and vision… A classic character player who has the ability to play in all three zones… A solid penalty killer… Initiates contact whenever possible, and is very sturdy on his feet… A leader on and off the ice.

QUOTEBOOK: "He's a pure character-type player. He works hard every shift, and uses his body. He is still working on getting quick feet, but he's definitely one of those guys you want on a team. He's the captain of his team already and he is just a pure character player. Talking to his coaches, they just can't say enough about the kid, and his teammates love him as well." – North American Amateur Scout Tom Nolan

NASHVILLE HITS 40 WINS FOR THE FOURTH STRAIGHT SEASON

In the past four seasons, the Predators are one of nine National Hockey League teams (along with Detroit, San Jose, New Jersey, Carolina, Anaheim, Calgary, Montreal, and N.Y. Rangers) to have notched 40 or more wins in each campaign. Nashville has recorded 395 points in that span, an average of nearly 99 points per season.

Nashville has amassed 181 victories since the start of 2005-06, the sixth-most in the NHL, and its 107 wins on home ice puts it third behind only Detroit and Calgary.

RINNE SHINES IN ROOKIE CAMPAIGN

Rookie goaltender Pekka Rinne burst onto the NHL scene in 2008-09, finishing in the League's Top 10 in goals against average (2.38), save percentage (.917) and shutouts (7). In 52 appearances, Rinne posted a 29-15-4 record, tied (with Andrew Raycroft, 2003-04) for the eighth-most wins by a rookie netminder in NHL history. The victory total also made him just the second goalie in franchise history to reach the quarter-century mark, joining Tomas Vokoun who did it four times. Rinne won his first six decisions of the season, and posted six straight victories again from Feb. 21-March 5, twice tying the second-longest winning streak in franchise history. When receiving three-or-more goals in offensive support, Rinne posted an 18-1-2 record.

Selected in the eighth round (258th overall) of the 2004 Entry Draft, Rinne became the seventh Nashville Predator to appear in a YoungStars Game during 2009 All-Star Weekend in Montreal, and led the Rookie team to a 9-5 victory over the Sophomores. The 6-5, 206-pounder used that momentum to go 9-2-1 with a 1.72 goals-against average and .944 save percentage in February, earning him Rookie of the Month honors.

The Kempele, Finland native's seven shutouts in 2008-09 set a franchise record, with all of them coming in a 32-start span from Dec. 1 at Buffalo to March 13 at Phoenix. Three of the whitewashes came in a five-start stretch during December, making him the first rookie netminder to record three shutouts in a single month since Buffalo's Martin Biron in January 2000. The month included him being named NHL First Star of the Week on Dec. 8 after posting two shutouts and allowing only two goals on 83 shots in three starts from Dec. 1-6. He went 3-0-0, and neither of the two goals allowed were at even strength. Additionally, three of the seven blankings were 1-0 Nashville wins, making him the second rookie backstop since the 1943-44 season to notch three or more wins of that variety (Tony Esposito had four 1-0 shutouts in 1969-70 for Chicago).

STEVE SULLIVAN'S RETURN TO LINEUP EARNS HIM THE MASTERTON

Six-hundred eighty-seven days passed between games for Nashville forward Steve Sullivan, but after missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 more playoff contests due to a back injury sustained on Feb. 22, 2007 vs. Montreal, the 5-9, 173-pound right wing returned to the Predators lineup on Jan. 10, 2009 vs. Chicago. His comeback earned him the 2009 Bill Masterton Trophy awarded to the NHL player who "best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." It made him the first player in franchise history to claim an NHL Award and, Sullivan's return was just the third time in the post-World War II era a player missed more than 600 days due to injury, then return to action (joining Jim Peplinski, Calgary and Mario Lemieux, Pittsburgh).

After starting his season with just five assists in his first 15 games, the Timmins, Ont., native rounded into form in mid-February, and notched 27 points (11g-16a) in the final 25 games of the season. Nashville went 22-14-5 with Sullivan in the lineup in 2008-09 vs. 18-20-3 without him.

WEBER BREAKS OUT

Defenseman Shea Weber rebounded from an injury-plagued 2007-08 season, surpassing his goal and point totals in the first 21 games of 2008-09 and finishing with career highs in goals (23), assists (30) and points (53). His goal total tied Sheldon Souray for second among NHL defenders in 2008-09, and was tied for the fourth-highest total by a blueliner in the past nine seasons (Mike Green, WSH in 2008-09: 31; Sheldon Souray, MTL in 2006-07: 26; Sergei Gonchar, WSH in 2001-02: 26). The goal total also broke the club record for goals by a defenseman previously held by Andy Delmore (18, 2002-03), while his point total was the second-highest by a defenseman in team history, and tied for eighth among League blueliners in 2008-09. Additionally, the Sicamous, B.C., native led Nashville with a franchise-record 251 shots on goal and dished out 192 hits. He was the NHL's only defender with more than 175 hits and 50 points.

The second-round pick (49th overall) of the Predators in the 2003 Entry Draft started the season off on a tear, with 10 goals in the first 20 games of the campaign, becoming the first NHL defenseman to reach double-figures in goals so quickly since 1987-88, when Buffalo's Phil Housley scored his 10th goal in the Sabres' 15th game, and Toronto's Al Iafrate did it in the Maple Leafs' 19th game. Weber was named the NHL's Third Star for the Month for October after leading all NHL defensemen in scoring with 11 points (4g-7a) while posting a plus-5 rating in Nashville's first 10 games.

The 6-4, 230-pounder parlayed his quick start into his first career All-Star Game appearance on Sunday, Jan. 25 in Montreal. He led the Western Conference in ice time (22:16) and was a plus-1 in the game, playing on a defensive pairing with Anaheim's Scott Niedermayer. In the Saturday night's SuperSkills Competition, he registered a 103.4 mph blast in the Hardest Shot contest, good for second to Boston's Zdeno Chara and third all-time behind Chara (105.4 mph) and Iafrate (105.2 mph, 1993).

POINT-PRODUCING DEFENSIVE DUO

Both Shea Weber and Ryan Suter – who teamed up on Nashville's top defensive pairing in 2008-09 – had career years, making them the second-highest producing blue line tandem in franchise history. The duo combined for 98 points (Weber 53, Suter 45), just one shy of the total posted by Kimmo Timonen (50) and Marek Zidlicky (49) in 2005-06. In addition to Weber's career highs in nearly every offensive category, Suter posted personal bests in points (45) – tying him for 16th among NHL blueliners – and assists (38) – 12th-best among League defenseman. The Madison, Wis., native also set a franchise record for average ice time (24:15).

ARNOTT HAS MILESTONE YEAR, SETS THE FRANCHISE GOAL MARK

Jason Arnott wrapped up the 2008-09 season with six goals in Nashville's last four games, capping the most prolific goal-scoring campaign in franchise history. The Predators captain posted 33 goals in just 65 games, besting the previous club record of 31 tallies in a season shared by both Steve Sullivan and Paul Kariya in 2005-06. The total also tied a personal best from his rookie campaign of 1993-94 with Edmonton. With no fewer than 27 goals in each of his three seasons with Nashville, he is the first player in club history to score 20 goals in three consecutive seasons. The Collingwood, Ont., native caught fire in the second half of the season, notching 33 points (18g-15) in his final 29 games (from Jan. 8-April 10, missed 14 games in that span due to injury), while scoring 18 goals in just 25 games after the All-Star break.

The 6-5, 220-pound center also hit a pair of career milestones in 2008-09. On Dec. 20 in a 2-0 rout of the New York Islanders, he became the 232nd player in League history to suit up for his 1,000th game, and just five weeks later on Jan. 28 at Vancouver, he notched his 800th career NHL point (goal), becoming the 133rd NHLer to hit that mark. Among players who are 35 or younger, Arnott enters 2009-10 with the fourth-most points (827) behind only Paul Kariya (946), Jarome Iginla (851) and Joe Thornton (842).

DURABILITY

The 2008-09 Predators tied a franchise record by having five players, including three defensemen, play all 82 games; twice prior the club had seen that many players appear in every contest (2001-02, 2000-01). On the blueline, Dan Hamhuis, Greg Zanon and Ryan Suter suited up for all 82 contests, while among the forward corps, J.P. Dumont and Jerred Smithson played in every game. Hamhuis has played at least 80 games in all five of his NHL seasons, while Suter has missed just five games in the last three campaigns. Smithson has missed just one game over the last two seasons, while Dumont has appeared in 244-of-246 games since joining the Predators in 2006-07.

PREDATORS POST BANNER MONTH OF FEBRUARY

The Predators started and ended the month of February with season-high four-game winning streaks, and went 10-4-1 for 21 points during the second month of 2009. The point total tied for the second-most in a single month in franchise history, previously attained in November 2006 when Nashville went 10-2-1. The club record for points in a month is 22 set in January 2004 when the Predators went 10-4-(2)-0. Nashville started February 2009 in 14th place in the Western Conference, eight points out of the eighth and final playoff spot, but when the calendar turned to March, the Predators were in ninth place, just one point from a playoff spot and two points from sixth in the conference.

TROTZ AMONG NHL LEGENDS

Predators Head Coach Barry Trotz continued to move up the games coached and victories with a single NHL franchise lists in 2008-09, finishing the season eighth in both games behind the bench (820) and wins (364) with a single team. Trotz moved past Hall of Famers Punch Imlach (770, Toronto) and Sid Abel (811, Detroit) on the games coached list in 2008-09, and leapfrogged five coaches on the wins list, including Abel (340, Detroit), Jacques Martin (341, Ottawa), Emile Francis (342, N.Y. Rangers), Bryan Murray (343, Washington) and Art Ross (361, Boston).

Additionally, by spending his 10th season as a Predators bench boss in 2008-09, Trotz joined Lester Patrick (N.Y. Rangers, 13 seasons) as the only coaches to spend each of the first 10 seasons of a franchise's existence as its head coach.

Series Notes	3/28/09: Steve Sullivan notched two assists and scored the overtime winner (3:41), and Martin Erat posted four assists as the Predators swept the 2008-09 season series vs. L.A. with a 4-3 win at the Sommet Center... 3/16/09: Ryan Jones scored his first career game-winning goal with just 2:18 remaining to give Nashville a 4-3 victory at Staples Center... 1/8/08: The Predators set a record for fastest three goals by the club in a 7-0 rout of the Kings at Staples Center... 12/22/07: Jason Arnott notched his seventh career hat trick (3g-1a) and first as a Predator in a 4-3 win at the Sommet Center... 12/23/06: Nashville recorded a 7-0 victory over Los Angeles at the Sommet Center. J.P. Dumont notched four points (2g-2a), while Jason Arnott and David Legwand both scored two goals apiece. Legwand (goal) and Paul Kariya (no goal) were both awarded penalty shots - the first time Nashville had been awarded more than one penalty shot in a single game - and Chris Mason stopped 34 shots in the shutout... 11/5/05: Pavol Demitra scored the game-deciding shootout goal in L.A.'s 3-2 shootout win at Staples Center. The shootout loss was the first in Predators history. David Legwand was foiled on a penalty-shot attempt in overtime... 1/13/04: Chris Mason made 33 saves in his first NHL shutout as Nashville and Los Angeles played to the first scoreless tie at the Sommet Center. Roman Cechmanek made 29 saves for L.A... 2/1/01: The Predators overcame a three-goal deficit to defeat the Kings 6-4 at the Staples Center... 3/4 & 3/19/00: Both 1999-00 head-to-head meetings between Nashville and Los Angeles at the Staples Center were decided in overtime. On March 4, Josef Stumpel scored the game winner (0:28) in the Kings' 3-2 win, and Cliff Ronning scored the game-winner (0:51) in Nashville's 2-1 win on March 19.

December 6, 2001: Nashville recorded its 100th victory, a 4-2 decision over Ottawa.

October 8, 2002: Greg Johnson was named the second captain in team history. Scott Walker also wore the "C" on an interim basis (January 12-27) for Nashville in 2002-03.

March 1, 2003: Barry Trotz, the only coach in franchise history, coached his 392nd consecutive game with Nashville. The milestone established a mark for most NHL games coached by the first coach of an expansion team.

June 19, 2003: Brent Peterson was promoted to associate coach while Peter Horachek, formerly the head coach of the Predators' top developmental affiliate, the AHL's Milwaukee Admirals, was hired as an assistant coach.

June 21-22, 2003: The Nashville Predators hosted the 2003 NHL Entry Draft at the Sommet Center and made 13 picks overall, including eight of the first 98 players selected. More than 13,000 fans attended the two-day event which had an estimated economic impact of nearly $10 million on Middle Tennessee.

FRANCHISE TIMELINE

February 8, 2004: For the first time since the team's inaugural season, Nashville was represented in the NHL All-Star Game. Kimmo Timonen (who was named to the Game in 1999, but did not participate due to injury) and Tomas Vokoun both played for the Western Conference at the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul, Minn.

April 3, 2004: On the second-to-last day of the 2003-04 regular season, a loss by the Edmonton Oilers clinched the Predators' first-ever berth in the NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs.

April 7, 2004: The Predators headed to Detroit to take on the top-seeded Red Wings in the franchise's first playoff game. Despite a goal off the stick of Adam Hall only 16 seconds into the game, Detroit held on for a 3-1 win.

April 11, 2004: In the first home playoff game in team history, the Predators earned their first playoff victory, a 3-1 decision over Detroit.

September 15, 2004: NHL commissioner Gary Bettman announced that the league's 30 teams would lock out players as the collective bargaining agreement expired.

February 15, 2005: NHL commissioner Gary Bettman officially announced the cancellation of the 2004-05 NHL season.

July 22, 2005: The NHL announced that the Board of Governors unanimously approved the new collective bargaining agreement, officially ending the lockout.

August 5, 2005: The Predators announced the signing of free-agent forward Paul Kariya, the first First-Team NHL All-Star to sign with Nashville.

October 5, 2005: After nearly 18 months of inactivity, the Predators returned to NHL action with a 3-2 victory over the San Jose Sharks in front of a capacity crowd at the Sommet Center.

October 8, 2005: In their second game of the 2005-06 season, the Predators won their first shootout, a 3-2 victory over Anaheim. Paul Kariya scored the game-deciding shootout goal against his former team.

March 18, 2006: Nashville defeated Calgary 9-4 at the Sommet Center for its 40th win of the 2005-06 season, the first 40-win season in franchise history. The Predators ended the season with a record of 49-25-8 and led the NHL with 32 home wins.

April 18, 2006: Paul Kariya netted a hat trick as part of a four-point game in Nashville's 6-3 win over Detroit in the team's 2005-06 regular-season finale. Kariya finished the season with 31 goals and 85 points, the latter being a franchise record. Steve Sullivan also netted 31 goals, and he and Kariya became the first Predators to score 30 or more goals in a season.

January 24, 2007: Kimmo Timonen represented Nashville in the 55th NHL All-Star Game in Dallas while head coach Barry Trotz served as an assistant coach for the Western Conference in the Game.

February 15, 2007: The Predators acquired legendary center Peter Forsberg from the Philadelphia Flyers for the 2007 stretch run.

April 5, 2007: With a 4-1 win over the St. Louis Blues, Nashville hit the 50-win mark for the first time in franchise history. The club would end the 2006-07 regular season with a record of 51-23-8 for a franchise-record 110 points.

April 11, 2007: In their third trip to the NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Predators went to sudden death overtime for the first time in Game 1 of their first-round series against the San Jose Sharks. After rallying from a two-goal deficit to tie the contest at 4-4, Nashville was ultimately upended by the winning goal from San Jose's Patrick Rissmiller at 8:14 of the second overtime period.

May 18, 2007: The Predators and the Middle Tennessee-based Sommet Group entered into a multi-year naming-rights agreement, thus renaming the Nashville Arena as the "Sommet Center."

May 22, 2007: The Sporting News announces its 2006-07 awards and Predators GM David Poile was named NHL Executive of the Year and Head Coach Barry Trotz was named Coach of the Year. Both honors were determined by a vote of their peers.

August 1, 2007: Nashville owner Craig Leipold announced the signing of a letter of intent to sell the Nashville Predators and Powers Management to a local ownership group led by David Freeman, CEO of 36 Venture Capital.

September 12, 2007: Jason Arnott is named the fourth captain in franchise history.

November 29, 2007: The National Hockey League's Board of Governors approved the proposed sale of the Nashville Predators to Predators Holdings LLC.

December 1, 2007: David Legwand notched three points (1g-2a) in the third period of a 5-4 shootout win at Montreal. His first point (a goal) was the 302nd of his NHL career, moving him past Kimmo Timonen into sole possession of first place on the franchise's all-time scoring list.

December 7, 2007: Predators Holdings LLC., completed its purchase of the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates the Sommet Center) for $193 million from Craig Leipold and took over the day-to-day operation of the Predators and the Sommet Center.

December 11, 2007: The Predators' new ownership group, led by Chairman David Freeman, introduced Ed Lang as the organization's President of Business Operations and David Poile as President of Hockey Operations/General Manager.

January 27, 2008: Captain Jason Arnott represented Nashville in the 56th NHL All-Star Game in Atlanta, becoming the fourth Predator to represent the club in the mid-season classic.

April 3, 2008: The Predators clinch their fourth consecutive playoff berth.

November 4, 2008: Head Coach Barry Trotz became just the 10th coach in NHL history to coach 750 games with a single team.

January 25, 2009: Defenseman Shea Weber became the first Predators draft pick to represent the club in an All-Star Game.

April 10, 2009: After missing the previous 11 games due to injury, Jason Arnott scored six goals in the final four games of the season, ending 2008-09 with a franchise-record 33 goals in just 65 games played.

June 18, 2009: Steve Sullivan became Nashville's first NHL award recipient, winning the Bill Masterton Trophy, given to the player who "best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." Sullivan returned on Jan. 10, 2009 from a 23-month absence due to injury.

MEDIA INFORMATION

PRESS, RADIO & TV INFORMATION

PRESS INFORMATION
Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Tim Darling (615-770-2380) or Kevin Wilson (615-770-2335) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS
Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Nashville Predators. These passes will be honored for entrance to the Sommet Center and all working areas for all 2009-10 regular-season home games. Single-game credentials must be submitted by email on company letterhead to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com) by 1:00 p.m. on the day prior to the game in question. Press box space is limited; for this reason, the Predators cannot guarantee credentials to those members of the media who request such passes after the deadline.

Credentials will be confiscated if worn by members of the media whose names do not appear on the credential. Only credentialed members of the media are allowed to sit in the press box.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All credentialed media may enter the media/Suite Level Club entrance of the Sommet Center on Fifth Avenue. The entrance will be open three hours prior to face-off and credentials will be available at this entrance after it has been opened.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers may shoot from the photo boxes adjacent to the players' benches and other designated areas. Freelance photographers will not be permitted. Location assignments are issued by the Predators' communications department and coordinated with team photographer John Russell. No roving passes will be issued.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS
The press box and radio/TV booths are located at the top of arena seats in sections 310 and 311 (southwest corner of the Sommet Center). All media should take the southwest corner freight elevator to the fourth level. The press box is equipped monitors, telephones and wireless internet service.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE
Wireless internet service is available (free of charge) to media in the event-level media lounge and in the press box. For assistance, please contact Casey Millar at (615) 642-6203.

PRE-GAME
The Predators' locker room corridor will be open until 90 minutes before each game. A representative from the Predators' communications department will be present to assist members of the media wishing to interview players. Television and radio stations seeking live or taped pre-game interviews must request the coach or player and state the specific interview time to media relations representatives AT OR BEFORE the game-day skate.

POST-GAME
Head Coach Barry Trotz will be available in the event-level media lounge for his post-game press conference following each home game. The Predators' locker rooms will open no later than ten minutes following the conclusion of the game. Transcriptions or audio clips of both head coaches' post-game press conferences, as well as various Predators player quotes from the locker room will be distributed to the media in a timely manner following each home game.

MEDIA WORK ROOMS
Workrooms and pre-game meals are available in the media dining area on the event level in the northwest corner of the arena. These rooms open three hours before the opening face-off. There is a second media lounge adjacent to sections 310 and 311. Statistical information, beverages and snacks will be available in the upper lounge during intermissions. Credentials must be displayed at all times to gain access to all media areas.

PRACTICE SESSIONS
Locker rooms will open ten minutes (maximum) after the conclusion of practice. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS
Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A media relations representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

PRESS, RADIO & TV INFORMATION

OFF-LIMITS

The medical room and shower and lavatory areas will be closed to all media. The main locker room, weight room and player lounge will be open to the media. Media are not permitted to enter the coaches' offices unless escorted by a member of the Predators communications department.

INJURY REPORTS

Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach Barry Trotz and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

ORDER OF SELECTION FOR 2010 ENTRY DRAFT

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2010 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2010 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2010 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2010 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2010 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

ELIGIBILITY FOR CLAIM

a) All Players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

i. a Player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
ii. a Player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
iii. a Player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
iv. a Player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18
v. a Player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

UNSIGNED DRAFT CHOICES

a) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

b) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

ENTRY LEVEL PLAYERS

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

3. In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-MAN ROSTER

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

INJURED RESERVE LIST

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.
3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

REGULAR SEASON WAIVERS

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18 year old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19 year old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a) First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.
c) The greater number of games won by the Club.
d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c)
e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

SOMMET CENTER INFORMATION

The Sommet Center opened in December 1996 and has hosted more than 12 million guests. It has become Nashville's No. 1 venue for large-scale musical productions, as well as one of the nation's most highly-acclaimed entertainment and sports venues. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,113 for Nashville Predators games.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena and the Gaylord Entertainment Center, the building became the Sommet (pronounced SO-may) Center on May 18, 2007 after the Tennessee-based Sommet Group entered into a multi-year naming-rights partnership with the Predators and Powers Management. The Sommet Group is an established, family-owned collection of companies that provides non-revenue generating business functions (such as human resources administration, payroll processing, insurance and risk management services, tailored benefits programs, as well as information technology consulting and customized software development) to small and medium-sized businesses throughout the United States.

A new state-of-the-art integrated scoring and video display system using the latest in sports videoboard technology was installed in the building in August 2007, and has been in operation for the past two seasons. Designed and constructed by ANC Sports in New York, the board is 100 percent LED-based and runs on a digital operating system, which also required a new control room to be build near the entrance tunnel to the arena bowl. The renovations were part of a more than $4 million facelift to the Sommet Center during the summer of 2007.

The entrance to the Sommet Center is positioned on the corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue facing the Ryman Auditorium, the original home of the Grand Ole Opry. The architects designed this as a tribute to Nashville's music roots.

The development of the arena exemplifies the city's changing persona and has been a catalyst for other projects in the surrounding area including the Country Music Hall of Fame, the downtown public library, the Frist Center for the Visual Arts and the Schermerhorn Symphony Center. A number of downtown living options – including several new condominiums – continue to spring up in close proximity to the Sommet Center.

Initiated by Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, the Sommet Center uniquely embraces Nashville's heritage as "Music City, U.S.A." For the event planner, the spectator, the athlete and the performer, the arena is equipped to deliver the latest in high-quality, "user-friendly" features. A soundstage-quality rehearsal hall is a part of the facility, making the arena a perfect site for concert performers.

In addition to serving as the home of the Nashville Predators, the Sommet Center has hosted a wide variety of sporting events including the U.S. National Figure Skating Championship (1997), the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (2000, 2003 & 2005), the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament (2001 & 2006), the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament (2002, 2004 & 2008) and the 2003 NHL Entry Draft. The venue has also been awarded the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2011 and 2012 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament and the 2010 and 2014 SEC Men's Basketball Tournament.

Community events have included the annual Mayor's First Day Festival and the Country Freedom Concert benefiting the Salvation Army Disaster Relief Fund. The venue has also hosted the CMA Awards show the past three years (2006-08), which were broadcasted live to national audiences on network television.

Featured performers at the Sommet Center have included Beyonce, Garth Brooks, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Billy Joel, Metallica, Celine Dion, Cher, Toby Keith, Simon & Garfunkel, Bruce Springsteen, Eric Clapton, The Rolling Stones, Neil Diamond, Tina Turner, Alan Jackson, Keith Urban, Kenny Chesney as well as Tim McGraw and Faith Hill.

The fine-dining experience is open before and after games and hosts a number of banquets and receptions. To make reservations, call (615) 770-2477.

- The 225-seat All-Inclusive Zone is at the south end of the Sommet Center overlooking the ice. In addition, the club-level bar and grill on the building's west side has been upgraded to feature cafe-style tables and seating.

- Completed in November 2008, the Fox Sports Tennessee Zone is a sports bar located just off the main concourse. It hosts Predators Live! a post-game show featuring highlights and interviews. The FS Tennessee Zone features tabletop seating and flat-screen high-definition televisions.

- A 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall is connected to the Sommet Center. The space, used by a number of touring acts, is available for rent.

- The Predators Pro Shop is located in the main lobby and is accessible from the entrance at Fifth and Broadway. For store hours and information, please call (615) 770-2437.

- The Sommet Center hosts Metro's Registry of Deeds (615-862-6790) and the Metro North Police precinct.

- From floor to ceiling, the highest point in the Sommet Center reaches 130 feet (about the height of a 13-story building) with the roof covering eight acres.

- There are four levels of seating at the arena. Handicapped-accessible seating is available at every level and the building holds two escalators.

- Linked to the Nashville Convention Center by a climate-controlled underground pedestrian walkway, the building is able to accommodate large conventions and major national entertainment and sporting events.

- An attached parking garage includes 250 parking spaces for suiteholders, handicapped patrons and regular patron parking. There are more than 12,500 public parking spaces located within a 10-minute walk from the facility.

CENTENNIAL SPORTSPLEX

222 25th Avenue North, Nashville, TN 37203 • (615) 862-8480

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare provider Hospital Corporation of America (HCA). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex.

The $20 million, 145,000 square-foot Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and two full-size ice rinks. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous national swim meets and, to date, still holds one of the fastest times ever swam for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

The ice arena is home to the Nashville Predators' practice facility which opened on February 1, 1999. The Sportsplex is also the home of the Predators' youth hockey school, summer development camp and training camp.

In addition, Centennial Sportsplex hosts adult hockey leagues, figure skating, numerous public sessions, figure skating competitions, ice shows, hockey tournaments and camps. In 1997, it was one of the sites for the USFSA National Championships.

The fitness center includes free weights and weight machines for complete workouts as well as daily aerobics classes.

Centennial Sportsplex offers instructional classes in skating, swimming and tennis, as well as public usage in each of those areas. The ice arena and aquatic area also offers special rates for parties, schools and group events. For further information, contact the Centennial Sportsplex at (615) 862-8480.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

ABDUCTION: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC JOINT (ACROMIOCLAVICULAR JOINT): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ADDUCTION: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

ADHESION: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

AEROBIC: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

ANABOLIC STEROIDS: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

ANAEROBIC: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTERIOGRAM: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

ARTHROGRAM: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPE: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

ARTHROSCOPY: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

ATROPHY: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

BAKER'S CYST: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

BONE SCAN: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image.The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

BURSA: A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.

CARTILAGE: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT SCAN (COMPUTERIZED TOMOGRAPHY): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CHONDROMALACIA: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap, which can occur in any kneecap injury.

CLAVICLE: Collarbone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

COCCYX: The 'tailbone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

CONCUSSION: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

CORTICOSTEROIDS: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons.

CRYOTHERAPY: A treatment with the use of cold.

CYST: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

DEGENERATIVE JOINT DISEASE: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'.

DELTOID LIGAMENT: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

DELTOID MUSCLE: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

DISC INTERVERTEBRAL: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

DISLOCATION: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

ELECTROMYOGRAM (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

EPICONDYLITIS: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow).

ETIOLOGY: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

EXTENSION: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

FASCIA: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

FAT PERCENTAGE: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

FEMUR: Thighbone; longest bone in the body.

FIBULA: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

FLEXIBILITY: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

FRACTURE: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

GLENOHUMERAL: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

GLENOID: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

GLENOID LABRUM: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

GRADE ONE INJURY: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

GRADE TWO INJURY: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

GRADE THREE INJURY: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

GROIN: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

HAMMER TOE: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle that the remaining digits of the same toe.

HAMSTRING: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

HEMARTHROSIS: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

HEMATOMA: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

HIP POINTER: Contusion to the iliac crest.

HYDROTHERAPY: Treatment using water.

HYPEREXTENSION: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

ILIOTIBIAL BAND: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of the thigh.

INFLAMMATION: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

ISOMETRIC CONTRACTION: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

LABRUM (LABRUM GLENOIDULE): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

LATERAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

LIGAMENT: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

MENISCUS: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee -medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

METACARPALS: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.

METATARSALS: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

MYOSITIS: Inflammation of a muscle.

ORTHOTIC: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability. Commonly used to control foot mechanics.

OSTEOCHONDRITIS DESSICANS: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

OSTEOMYELITIS: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus bacteria.

PATELLA: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

PLANTAR FASCIITIS: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

RADIUS: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.

RECONSTRUCTION: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

ROTATOR CUFF: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SACROILIAC: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.

SACRUM: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.

SCAPULA: Shoulder blade.

SCIATICA: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

SCIATIC NERVE: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

SHIN SPLINT: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPLEEN: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.

SPONDYLOSIS: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

SPRAIN: Injury resulting from the stretching or twisting of the joint and causes various degrees of stretching or tearing of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN: Injury resulting from a pulling or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretching or tearing to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE: A hair-line type of break in a bone. Caused by overuse.

SUBLUXATION: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

SYNOVIAL FLUID: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

SYNOVITIS: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

TALUS: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

TARSALS: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

TENDINITIS: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TENOSYNOVITIS: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

TIBIA: Shin bone; larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

TRANSCUTANEOUS ELECTRICAL NERVE STIMULATOR (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

TRANSVERSE PROCESS: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

TRICEPS: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

ULNA: Inner bone of the forearm that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

ULNAR NERVE: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

ULTRASOUND: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

"WIND KNOCKED OUT": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

VANDERBILT MEDICAL STAFF

Vanderbilt Sports Medicine

JOHN E. KUHN, M.D.

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN AND ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. Kuhn received his medical training and completed his orthopaedic residency at the University of Michigan before travelling to Vail, Colo., where he served as a fellow in Orthopaedic Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery at the prestigious Steadman-Hawkins Clinic. He has served as team physician for the University of Michigan, the USA Hockey National Team Development Program, the U.S. Olympic Committee, Vanderbilt University and the Nashville Sounds baseball team. Dr. Kuhn also serves as a consulting physician for both the NFL and NHL players associations. Dr. Kuhn and his wife, Janet, have three children: Andrew, Hobey and Katie.

JAMES L. CAREY, M.D.

ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN AND ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. Carey attended the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine and then completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He subsequently, completed a Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery fellowship at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He currently serves as a team physician at Belmont University and Vanderbilt University and sees patients at Vanderbilt Orthopaedics at Cool Springs. Dr. Carey received the Ranawat Award from the Eastern Orthopaedic Association for investigating the outcomes of anterior cruciate ligament injuries to running backs and wide receivers in the National Football League. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Franklin with their son Jackson.

CHARLES L. (CHARLIE) COX, M.D.

ASSISTANT TEAM PHYSICIAN AND ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON

Dr. Cox earned his medical degree from the University of Tennessee, College of Medicine, graduating Alpha Omega Alpha. He fulfilled his orthopaedic training at Tulane University Medical Center in New Orleans, serving as chief resident in his final year, followed by completion of the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery fellowship at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He currently serves as a team physician for Vanderbilt University and the Nashville Sounds baseball team. His clinical interests include care of knee and shoulder pathology with an emphasis on arthroscopic treatment techniques. Dr. Cox resides in Nashville with his wife, Joy.

PAUL J. RUMMO, D.O.

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN AND INTERNAL MEDICINE PHYSICIAN

Dr. Rummo attended medical school at the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine. He completed his Internal Medicine residency at Memorial Health Care followed by a fellowship in Primary Care Sports Medicine at Vanderbilt University. After fellowship, Dr. Rummo practiced at Vanderbilt Sports Medicine Center where he served as a team physician for Vanderbilt University, Belmont University and also served as Associate Medical Director of the Country Music Marathon. After four years of practicing in his native New Hampshire from 2001-05, Dr. Rummo returned to Vanderbilt Sports Medicine where he was named the Medical Director of Vanderbilt Orthopaedics at Cool Springs. Dr. Rummo resides in Franklin with his wife, Becky, and their children: Quentin, Lilyana, Camden and Laney.

ALEX DIAMOND, D.O.

ASSISTANT INTERNAL MEDICINE PHYSICIAN

Dr. Diamond completed his medical training at Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. He went on to complete his residency training in pediatrics at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children and later his fellowship training in Primary Care Sports Medicine at Vanderbilt University. In addition to the Predators, Dr. Diamond serves as a team physician for Vanderbilt and Belmont Universities, Antioch High School and the Nashville Sounds. Dr. Diamond is a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine, the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Academy of Pediatrics.

DANIEL S. WEIKERT, M.D.

TEAM OPHTHALMOLOGIST

Dr. Weikert received his medical degree from Vanderbilt University and completed his residency program at the Vanderbilt Department of Ophthalmology. He is board certified in ophthalmology by the American Board of Ophthalmology. Following the completion of his residency, he joined the Eye Associates of Middle Tennessee. He is also the team ophthalmologist for the Tennessee Titans. Dr. Weikert has previous experience providing eye care for the Tennessee State University and Vanderbilt University athletic departments. Dr. Weikert practices general ophthalmology with a special interest in refractive laser surgery. He is the proud father of Abigail, Alexander, and Nicholas.

BLAIR SUMMITT, M.D.

TEAM PLASTIC SURGEON

J. Blair Summitt, M.D., is an assistant professor in the Department of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He specializes in general reconstructive, acute and reconstructive burn, maxillofacial, microsurgical, and cosmetic plastic surgery. He obtained his undergraduate degree from Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., and his medical degree from the University of Tennessee-Memphis College of Medicine. He completed his general surgery residency at the UT College of Medicine in Chattanooga, and completed a burn fellowship and a plastic surgery residency at Vanderbilt. He is a member of several professional associations. He and his wife Jonelle have one daughter, Sophie.

WESLEY THAYER, M.D.

TEAM PLASTIC SURGEON

Wesley P. Thayer, M.D., Ph.D., is an assistant professor of surgery in the Department of Plastic Surgery at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He earned his medical degree and his post doctoral degree in immunology at Emory University in Atlanta. He served as chief resident at University of Virginia's Department of Surgery in Charlottesville, and completed a fellowship in plastic and reconstructive surgery at Vanderbilt. He also completed a fellowship in hand and microsurgery at the University of Alabama-Birmingham. His clinical interests include treatment of upper extremity nerve injuries, compression neuropathies including the brachial plexus and upper extremity dysfunction after stroke or brain injury and tetraplegia.

JASON WENDEL, M.D.

TEAM PLASTIC SURGEON

Jason Wendel, M.D., received his bachelor's degree from Wabash College, and his medical degree from the Indiana University School of Medicine. He trained in general, plastic and burn surgery at the University of South Florida College of Medicine and also completed a plastic surgery fellowship at the University of Michigan. Dr. Wendel joined Vanderbilt University Medical Center's staff in 2002, and also currently serves as Chief of Plastic Surgery at the Tennessee Valley Veteran's Hospital. His clinical practice includes broad-based reconstructive plastic surgery and cosmetic surgery. He is a member of several local, regional, and national surgical societies, and is certified by the American Board of Plastic Surgery.

KEVIN HAGAN, M.D.

TEAM PLASTIC SURGEON

Born in Cleveland, Dr. Hagan received both his bachelor's and MD degrees from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. After completing a residency in general surgery at the Medical College of Virginia, he completed both a plastic surgery residency and a micro-surgery fellowship at the University of California – San Francisco. Dr. Hagan came to Vanderbilt in 1982. Dr. Hagan was a recipient of the Henry Strong Dennison Research Scholar Award. He has published extensively on topics in reconstructive, cranio-facial and trauma surgery. Dr. Hagan and his wife, Janie, have two children Elise Marie and Scott Lawrence.

CRISTIN M. WALLACE, D.D.S.

TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Wallace has been practicing dentistry for 11 years after graduating from the University of Tennessee Dental School. Dr. Wallace is a member of the American Dental Association, Tennessee Dental Association, Nashville Dental Society and the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry. Dr. Wallace is proud to be carrying on her father's (the late Dr. James McPherson), and brother's (the late Dr. Will McPherson) love of cosmetic and restorative family dental care. In addition to working with the Predators, Wallace also serves as the team dentist for the Tennessee Titans (NFL). Dr. Wallace and her husband, Brody, are the proud parents of Parks, an aspiring future Predator, and Sara Mac.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-winning goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-against average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-killing pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-play goal: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-play percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded goal: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthanded as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

Tenths of a second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches' record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

NAME & LOGO

The Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on September 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address.

In May of 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story Regions Center. Construction workers drilled through 20 feet of solid rock before coming to a soft muddy area. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years.

Radiocarbon tests on the specimen revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago) part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marks only the fifth of its kind in North America. The cave, located beneath the building, is preserved under concrete for historic and educational purposes.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington, Vermont and Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville.

The naming of the Predators is a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice.

On September 27, 1997, Nashville's NHL expansion team hosted the Ice Breaker Bash to launch a season ticket campaign that would ultimately sell over 12,000 season tickets in just six months.

During the Bash and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by an overwhelming two-to-one margin over the second choice. On November 13, 1997, in front of 3,000 enthusiastic fans at The Wildhorse Saloon in downtown Nashville, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it.

On February 12, 1998, Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys in front on 2,000 fans at Cool Springs Galleria.

On November 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey with a 4-3 win against the Chicago Blackhawks at the Sommet Center. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-tooth tiger logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 NHL teams, introduced the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to further meet the performance demands of today's player. The uniforms were the result of more than two years of research and testing by Reebok, and they feature technologically advanced materials and fabrics that are more breathable, more water-resistant, more comfortable and more compatible with equipment. The implementation of the Rbk EDGE Uniform System marked the first time in the history of North American professional sports that a uniform innovation was introduced League-wide.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983.

Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, current Predators assistant coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semifinals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel.

Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season.

In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semi-finals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers.

"The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success – all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.
